The fourth and last volume contains the remaining unrepealed Acts of the local Legislature down to the middle of November 1935. The Acts and Regulations are printed in chronological order.

3. Enactments of the Governor of Fort St. George in Council which are only in force in the Scheduled Districts of the Madras Presidency, and purely amending Acts have not been printed in extenso. 4. A complete chronological table has been prefixed to each volume showing how the enactments are printed and a concise index to the whole Code has been appended to the last volume.

5. For the purpose of ascertaining what rules and orders have been issued by the Local Government under the various enactments in the Code, the list of Local Rules and Orders and its supplements which have been published separately, from time to time, should be consulted.

Section 1 and the unrepealed part of s. 16 of this Regulation were declared by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874)—s. 4 and the Second Schedule—to be in force in the whole of the Presidency of Madras except the territories mentioned in the Sixth Schedule to that Act. S. 1 and the unrepealed part of s. 16 have been declared by notification under s. 3 of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), to be in force in the Rampa country—see Gazette of India, 1879, Pt. The same portions of the Regulation have been extended, by notification under s. 5 of the same Act, to the Taluqs of Bhadrachalam and Rakapilli—see Gazette of India, 1879, Pt. The Regulation has been extended by a notification under s. 5 of the Scheduled Districts Act to the Muttas of Dutcharti and Guditeru of the Godavari Agency—see Fort St. George Gazette, 1930, Pt. The same portions of the Regulation are in force in the Nugur taluk of the East Godavari district in virtue of s. 2 (1) of Regulation I of 1909.

12 to 15. [Procedure on default of plaintiff or defendant to appear or plead: service of processes.] Rep., Act X of 1861.

16. [First clause.—Laws applicable to certain classes of suits.] Rep., Act III of 1873.

Executors to Muhammad-ans and others whose heirs are not disqualified landholders to take charge of assets and execute trust. Courts not to interfere, except on regular complaint. Procedure on such complaint.

<sup>1</sup> Second.—In all cases of a Mussulman, or other person subject to the jurisdiction of the Zila Courts, having at his death left a will, and appointed an executor or executors to carry the same into effect, and in which the heir to the deceased may not be a disqualified landholder subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards, the executors so appointed are to take charge of the estate of the deceased, and proceed in the execution of their trust according to the will of the deceased and the laws and usages of the country, without any application to * * * *<sup>2</sup> any * * *<sup>2</sup> officer of Government for his sanction; and the Courts of Justice are prohibited to interfere in such cases, except on a regular complaint against the executors for a breach of trust, or otherwise, when they are to take cognizance of such complaint, in common with all others of a civil nature,<sup>2</sup> * * * *<sup>3</sup> with respect to which the Judge is to be guided by the law of the parties, * * * *<sup>3</sup>

Heirs of intestate or their guardians when not required to apply to Courts for permission to take possession.

Third.—In case of a Hindu, Mussulman or other person subject to the jurisdiction of the Zila Courts dying intestate,<sup>4</sup> but leaving a son or other heir, who by the laws of the country may be entitled to succeed to the whole estate of the deceased, such heir, if of age, and competent to take the possession and management of the estate, or if under age or incompetent, and <sup>1</sup> This clause, so far as it applies to Hindus, was repealed by Mad. Reg. V of 1829, s. 2, while so much of it as applies to law-officers has been repealed by Mad. Act V of 1867.

<sup>2</sup> The words "the Judge of the Court of Adalat, or," the word "other" and the words "under the general rule contained in section V, Regulation II, 1802, and proceed thereupon according to the Regulations," were repealed by Act XII of 1876.

<sup>3</sup> The words "taking the opinion of their law-officers upon any legal exception to the executors, as well as upon the provision to be made for the administration of the estate, in the event of the appointed executor being set aside, and generally upon all points of law that may occur," and the words and figures "as expounded by his law-officers, subject to any modifications enacted by the Governor in Council in the form prescribed by Regulation I, 1802," were repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1901 (XI of 1901), s. 3 (2) and the Third Schedule.

<sup>4</sup> As to extended application of this clause and also of the succeeding clauses, see Mad. Reg. V of 1829, s. 3.

not under the superintendence of the Court of Wards, his guardian or nearest of kin, who by special appointment, or by the law and usage of the country, may be authorized to act for him, is not required to apply to the Courts of Justice for permission to take possession of the estate of the deceased, as far as the same can be done without violence; and the Courts of Justice are restricted from interference in such cases, except a regular complaint be preferred, * * *.<sup>1</sup>

Fourth.—If there be more heirs than one to the estate of a person dying intestate, and they can agree amongst themselves in the appointment of a common manager, they are at liberty to take possession, and the Courts of Justice are restricted from interference, without a regular complaint, as in the case of a single heir; but if the right of succession to the estate be disputed between several claimants, one or more of whom may have taken possession, the Judge, on a regular suit being preferred by the party out of possession, shall take good and sufficient security from the party or parties in possession, for his or their compliance with the judgment that may be passed in the suit; or, in default of such security being given, within a reasonable period, may give possession, until the suit may be determined, to the other claimant or claimants, who may be able to give such security; declaring, at the same time, that such possession is not in any degree to affect the right of property at issue between the parties, but to be considered merely as an administration to the estate for the benefit of the heirs who may, on investigation, be found entitled to succeed thereto.

More heirs than one to intestate's estate may appoint common manager and take possession. When right of succession is disputed, security to be taken from party in possession. Failing such security, claimants giving it to be placed in possession.

Fifth.—In the event of none of the claimants to the estate of a person dying intestate being able to give the security required by the preceding clause, and in all cases wherein there may be no person authorized and willing to take charge of the landed estate of a person deceased, the Judge within whose jurisdiction such estate may be situated (or in which the deceased may have resided, or the principal part of the estate may lie, in the event of its being situated within two or more jurisdictions) is authorized to appoint an administrator for the due care and management of such estate, until, in the former case, the suit depending between the several claimants shall have been determined, or, in the latter case, until the legal heir to the estate, or other person entitled to receive charge thereof as executor, administrator or otherwise, shall attend and claim the same; when, if the Judge be satisfied that the claim is well founded, or if the same be established after any enquiry that may appear necessary, the administrator appointed by the Court shall deliver over the estate to him, with a full and just account of all receipts and disbursements during the period of his administration.

When Judge may appoint administrator to manage intestate's estate.

Administration when to cease.

[THE MADRAS PERMANENT SETTLEMENT REGULATION, 1802.]

[13th July, 1802.]

- <sup>2</sup> A Regulation for declaring the proprietary right of lands to be vested in individual persons, and for defining the rights of such persons, under a permanent Assessment of the Land-revenue in the British territories subject to the Presidency of Fort St. George.

WHEREAS it is known to the zamíndárs, mírásídárs, raiyats and cultivators of land in the territories subject to the Government of Fort St. George, that from the earliest until the present period of time the public assessment of the land-revenue has never been fixed; but that, according to the practice of Asiatic Governments, the assessment of the land-revenue has fluctuated without any fixed principles for the determination of the amount, and without any security to the zamíndárs or other persons for the continuance of a moderate land-tax; that, on the contrary, frequent inquiries have been instituted by the ruling Power, whether Hindu or Muhamínadan, for the purpose of augmenting the assessment of the land-revenue; that it has been customary to regulate such augmentations by the inquiries and opinions of the local officers appointed by the ruling Power for the time being; and that in the attainment of an increased revenue on such foundations, it has been usual for the Government to deprive the zamíndárs, and to appoint persons on its own behalf to the management of the zamíndáris, thereby reserving to the ruling Power the implied right and the actual exercise of the proprietary possession of all lands whatever;

This Regulation was declared by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), s. 4 and the Second Schedule—to be in force in the whole of the Presidency of Madras except the territories mentioned in the Sixth Schedule to that Act.

It has further been declared to be in force in the Scheduled Districts of Ganjam and Vizagapatam, by notification under s. 3 (a) of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874)—see Gazette of India, 1898, Pt. I, p. 869, and Fort St. George Gazette, 1898, Pt. I, p. 666. The Regulation has been extended by a notification under s. 5 of the Scheduled Districts Act to the Bhadrachalam and Nugur taluks of the Godavari Agency—see Fort St. George Gazette, 1930, Pt. I, p. 553. The Regulation has been declared by a notification under s. 3, cl. (a) of the Scheduled Districts Act to be in force in the Dutcharti and Guditeru Muttas of the Godavari Agency—see Fort St. George Gazette, 1930, Pt. I, p. 553.

and whereas it is obvious to the said zamíndárs, mirásídárs, raiyats and cultivators of land that such a mode of administration must be injurious to the permanent prosperity of the country by obstructing the progress of agriculture, population and wealth, and destructive of the comfort of individual persons by diminishing the security of personal freedom and of private property; wherefore, the British Government, impressed with a deep sense of the injuries arising to the State and to its subjects from the operation of such principles, has resolved to remove from its administration so fruitful a source of uncertainty and disquietude, to grant to zamíndárs and other landholders, their heirs and successors, a permanent property in their land in all time to come, and to fix for ever a moderate assessment of public revenue on such lands, the amount of which shall never be liable to be increased under any circumstances.

2. In conformity to these principles, an assessment shall be fixed on all lands liable to pay revenue to the Government; and, in consequence of such assessment, the proprietary right of the soil shall become vested in the zamíndárs or other proprietors of land, and in their heirs and lawful successors for ever.

Assessment on all lands liable to revenue. Proprietary right vested in zamindars.

3. Where the conditions of the permanent assessment of the revenue may have been adjusted, a sanad-i-milkíyat-i-istimrar, or deed of permanent property, shall be granted on the part of the British Government to all persons being, or constituted to be zamíndárs or proprietors of land; and each zamíndár or proprietor of land shall execute and deliver to the Collector of the district a corresponding kabúliyat.

Instruments to be granted to zamindars. Corresponding kabuliyats.

The said sanad and kabúliyat shall contain the conditions and articles of tenure by which the lands shall be held.

In all cases of disputed assessment reference shall be had to the sanads and kabúliyats, and judgment shall be given by the Courts of Judicature in conformity to the conditions under which the agreement may have been formed in each particular case.

Cases of disputed assessment.

4. The Government having reserved to itself the entire exercise of its discretion in continuing or abolishing, temporarily or permanently, the articles of revenue included, according to the custom and practice of the country, under the several heads of salt and saltpetre—of the sayar, or duties by sea or land—of the ábkári, or tax on the sale of spirituous liquors and intoxicating drugs—of the excise on articles of consumption—of all taxes personal and professional, as well as those derived from markets, fairs or bazars—of lakhiraj lands (or lands exempt from the payment of public revenue), and of all other lands paying only favourable quit-rents—the permanent assessment of the land-tax shall be made exclusively of the said articles now recited.

Articles of revenue which Government reserves right of abolishing or continuing. Land-tax to be permanently fixed exclusive of these articles.

Police expenses to be borne by Government. Lands appropriated to this purpose to be resumed.

5. The Government having charged itself generally with the maintenance and support of such establishments as may be requisite in the several provinces, cities and towns for the better keeping of the police, no lands shall be considered, as heretofore, to be holden on the condition of performing police duties, unless the same shall be specially provided for in the sanad-i-milkíyat-i-istímrar: and all lands or rasms heretofore appointed to the support of police establishments shall be disposed of in such manner as the Government may think fit.

Amount of assessment to be regularly paid. No remission of revenue to be allowed. Landholder's property answerable for consequences of failure.

6. The landholders shall regularly pay in all seasons, in the current coin of their respective provinces, the amount of the permanent assessment fixed on their lands; the remission of revenue which has occasionally been granted according to the custom of the country on account of drought, inundation or other calamity of the season shall cease and never be revived; and where landholders may fail to discharge their pecuniary engagements their property shall be answerable for the consequence of such failure.

Their personal property to be attached in the first instance.

7. Where such failure may occur, the personal property of landholders shall in the first instance be attached, and ultimately their lands shall be liable to be sold and transferred from them for ever, if necessary, for the payment of the public revenue.<sup>1</sup>

Proprietors of land may transfer proprietary right in whole or part of their zamindáris.

Restrictions under which such transfer is to be made.

8. Proprietors of land shall be at free liberty to transfer without the previous consent of the Government, or of any other authority, to whomever they may think proper, by sale, gift or otherwise, their proprietary right the whole or in any part of their zamindáris; such transfers of land shall be valid and shall be respected by the Courts of Judicature and by the officers of Government; provided they shall not be repugnant to the Muhammadan or to the Hindu laws, or to the regulations of the British Government. But unless such sale, gift or transfer shall have been regularly registered at the office of the Collector, and unless the public assessment shall have been previously determined and fixed on such separated portions of land by the Collector, such sale, gift or transfer shall be of no legal force or effect, nor shall such transaction exempt a zamindár from the payment of any part of the public land-tax assessed on the entire zamindáráí previously to such transfer, but the whole zamindáráí shall continue to be answerable for the total land-tax, in the same manner as if no such transaction had occurred.

9. Where a part of a zamíndárí may be sold for the liquidation of arrear of the public assessment, or for the satisfaction of a decree of a Court of Judicature, or where part of a zamíndárí may be transferred by sale, gift or otherwise, the zamíndár or landholder shall furnish to the Collector true and correct accounts of the entire zamíndárí, and of the portion of the zamíndárí about to be separated, for a period of time not less than the three years preceding such sale or transfer, in order that the due proportion of the public revenue may be fixed thereon.

Accounts to be furnished in forming part of zamíndárí into separate estate.

The assessment to be fixed in this case on the separated lands shall always bear the same proportion to the actual value of the separated portion as the total permanent jamá on the zamíndárí bears to the actual value of the whole zamíndárí.

Principle regulating assessment on part to be separated.

10. [No separate estate to be created with a less jamá than 500 pagodas.] Rep., Mad. Act II of 1869.

<sup>1</sup> 11. The zamíndárs or landholders shall support the regular and established number of karnams in the several villages of their respective zamíndáris.

Number of karnams to be kept up : to be appointed by zamíndárs.

The karnams shall be appointed from time to time by the zamíndárs, and shall obey all legal orders issued by them; but the karnams shall not be liable to be removed from their offices, except by the sentence of a Court of Judicature.

Where a zamíndár, or his under-farmers, tenants or rai-yats, may have cause of complaint against a karnam for breach of his duty, such zamíndár shall be free to institute a suit in the Adálat of the zila for the purpose of bringing such karnam to trial and punishment; but, where a zamíndár may deprive a karnam of his office without such previous regular process, the zamíndár shall be liable to make such satisfaction for the injury as the Adálat of the zila may decree.

Procedure against karnams in cases of complaint.

Where a karnam may be dismissed from his office by the sentence of a Court of Judicature, the zamíndár shall in the first instance select a successor from the family of the last incumbent, provided any member of that family be found capable of performing the duty of karnam; but where no member of the family may be capable of discharging the duty of karnam, in that case the zamíndár shall exercise his discretion in the appointment of a proper person. The name of the person appointed to succeed to the office of karnam shall be reported to the Collector of the zila by the zamíndár.

Appointment of successor to karnam dismissed from office.

12. It shall not be competent to proprietors of land to appropriate any part of a landed estate permanently assessed, to religious or charitable or to any other purposes by which it may be intended to exempt such lands from bearing their portion of the public tax; nor shall it be competent to a proprietor of land to resume lands, or to fix a new assessment on lands

No part of an estate permanently assessed can be exempted from bearing its portion of public tax.

This Regulation was declared by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874)—s. 4 and the Second Schedule—to be in force in the whole of the Presidency of Madras except the territories mentioned in the Sixth Schedule to that Act. The Regulation has been extended by a notification under s. 5 of the Scheduled Districts Act to the Bhadrachalam taluk and the Muttas of Dutacharti and Guditeru of the Godavari Agency—see Port St. George Gazette, 1930, Pt. I, p. 553. The Regulation is not in force in the Nugur taluk. It was declared by s. 7, cl. 1, of Mad. Reg. II of 1806, that the provisions of ss. 1 to 10 and 13 to 16 of this Regulation should not extend to districts of which the revenue was not permanently settled, and rules for the duties of karnams in such districts were enacted in s. 7, cl. 2, of the Reg. of 1806, in addition to those prescribed by ss. 11, 12, 17 and 18 of Mad. Reg. XXIX of 1802. Further duties were assigned to karnams by Mad. Reg. XI of 1816.

Mad. Reg. XXIX of 1802 ceases to be in force in estates where the Madras Proprietary Estates' Village-service Act, 1894 (Mad. Act II of 1894), is extended to the office of village-accountant—see s. 3 of that Act.

On and after the commencement of Mad. Act III of 1895 (which, however, does not apply to Scheduled Districts), no portion of this Regulation shall continue to apply to any local area which is not a permanently settled proprietary estate—see s. 2 (1) of the Act.

the people, it is expedient to provide for the continuance of that office on an efficient establishment, for the purpose of facilitating the decision of suits in the Courts of Judicature, of preventing the diminution of the fixed revenue of the Government, and of securing individual persons from injustice, by enabling the public officers of Government and the Courts of Judicature to procure authentic information and accounts. In conformity, therefore, to the ancient usages of the country, the following rules have been enacted for the establishment of the office of Karnam.

2. An office of record, under a karnam, shall be established in each village of a district where the land-revenue may have been permanently assessed on the lands; provided the revenues arising from such village, inclusively of charges, may amount to the annual sum of four hundred pagodas or upwards. But in villages where the annual revenue may be less than the said sum of four hundred pagodas, it shall be competent for one karnam to superintend and discharge the duties of the karnam's office in two or more villages. Establishment of office of karnam.
3. The nomination of persons to the office of karnam shall be in the actual proprietors of land. Nomination to office.
4. [Appointment of office.] Rep. Act XII of 1876.

Where vacancies may occur in the office of karnam, either by death or dismissal, the landholder concerned shall report the event to the Collector, and shall within thirty days nominate a proper person to fill the vacancy, acquainting the Collector with the name of such person. Vacancies how supplied.
7. In filling vacancies in the office of the karnam, the heirs of the preceding karnam shall be chosen by the landholders concerned, except in cases of incapacity, on proof of which before the Judge of the zila the said landholders shall be free to exercise their discretion in the nomination of persons to fill vacancies. Office of karnam hereditary. Exception.
8. Proprietors of land shall deposit in the Adalat of the zila, in the head kachari of the Collector, and in the principal kachari of each zamindari or estate authentic lists containing the names of the karnams on their respective estates, and the names of the villages of which the said karnams may have been appointed to keep the accounts. List of karnams and of villages under each.
9. It shall be competent for the Board of Revenue at the Presidency to authorize, through the channel of the Collectors, the proprietors of land to reduce the number of karnams in all cases where such reductions may appear to be advisable to the said Board. Board of Revenue may reduce number of karnams.

So much of this Regulation as relates to endowments for the support of mosques, Hindu temples or other religious purposes is repealed by the Religious Endowments Act, 1863 (XX of 1863).

This Regulation has been repealed so far as it applies to the Hindu religious endowments to which the Madras Hindu Religious Endowments Act, 1926 (Madras Act II of 1927) applies—see s. 8 of that Act.

This Regulation was declared by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), s. 4 and the second schedule—to be in force in the whole of the Presidency of Madras except the territories mentioned in the sixth schedule to that Act.

It has been declared by notification under s. 3 (a) of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), to be in force in the Rampa Country—see Gazette of India, 1879, Pt. I, p. 630, and Fort St. George Gazette, ibid., p. 722.

It has been extended by notification under s. 5 of the above-named Act, to the Taluqs of Bhadrachalam and Rakapalli—see Gazette of India, 1879, Pt. I, p. 630 and Fort St. George Gazette, ibid., p. 722.

The Regulation has been declared by notification under s. 3 (b) of the same Act, not to be in force in the Scheduled Districts in Ganjam and Vizagapatam—see Fort St. George Gazette, 1898, Pt. I, p. 667, and Gazette of India, 1898, Pt. I, p. 872.

2. The general superintendence of all endowments in land or money granted for the support of mosques, Hindu temples or colleges, or for other pious and beneficial purposes, and of all public buildings, such as bridges, choultries or chattrams, and other edifices, in the several Provinces dependent on the Presidency of Fort St. George, is hereby vested in the Board of Revenue.

In like manner it shall be the duty of that Board to provide, <sup>1</sup>[* * * *] for the due repair and maintenance of all public edifices which have been erected at the expense either of the former or present Government, or of individuals, and which either are or can be, rendered conducive to the convenience of the community.

Board to provide for appropriation of such endowments, and for repair of public buildings.

4. In those cases, however, in which any of the buildings specified in the preceding section have fallen to decay, and cannot be conveniently repaired, or are not calculated, if repaired, to afford any material accommodation to the public, the Board of Revenue shall submit to Government their opinion as to the most expedient mode of disposing of such buildings; and they shall be sold on the public account, or otherwise disposed of, as the Governor in Council may determine.

Buildings

cay or not calculated to be useful if

of escheats.

The general superintendence of all escheats is likewise hereby vested in the Board of Revenue, who will, through the channel hereafter mentioned, inform themselves fully of all property of that description, and submit to Government their opinion as to the most expedient mode of disposing thereof: and the same shall be sold on the public account, or otherwise disposed of, as the Governor in Council may determine.

Local agents.

7. To enable the Board of Revenue the better to carry into effect the duties intrusted to them by this Regulation, local agents shall be appointed in each zila, subject to the authority, control and orders of that Board.

Ex officio
agents.

8. The Collector of the zila shall be ex officio one of those agents, and the Governor in Council, when he deems it necessary, may appoint any other public officer or officers from the civil, military or medical branch of the service to act in conjunction with him.

Agents to ascertain particulars of endowments, etc., and report
to Board;

9. Under the provisions of the present Regulation it will be the duty of the local agents to obtain full information from the public records, and by personal inquiries, respecting all endowments, establishments and buildings of the nature of those before described, and respecting all escheats, and to report to the Board of Revenue any instance in which they may have reason to believe that lands or buildings, or the rent or revenues derived from lands are unduly appropriated, being in all cases careful not to infringe any private rights, or to occasion unnecessary trouble or vexation to individuals.

10. The said local agents shall further ascertain and report to the Board of Revenue the names of the present trustees, managers or superintendents of the several institutions, foundations or establishments above described, together with other particulars respecting them, and by whom and under what authority they have been appointed or elected, and whether in conformity to the special provisions of the original endowment and appropriation by the founder or under any general rules or maxims applicable to such institutions and foundations.

to report
to Board vacancies or casualties, and preten-sions of claimants;

11. The local agent shall also report to the Board of Revenue all vacancies and casualties which may occur, with full information of all circumstances, to enable that Board to judge of the pretensions of the person or persons claiming the trust, particularly whether the succession has been heretofore by inheritance in the line of descent, or whether the successor has been in former instances elected, and by whom, or whether he has been nominated by the founder, or his heir or representative, or by any other individual patron of the foundation, or by any officer or representative of Government, or directly by the Government itself.

12. In those cases in which the nomination has usually rested with the Government, or with the public officer, or in which no private person may be competent and entitled to make sufficient provision for the succession to the trust and management, it will be the further duty of the local agents to propose, for the approval and confirmation of the Board of Revenue, a person or persons for the charge of trustee, manager or superintendent, strictly attending to the qualifications of the person or persons selected, and to any special provisions of the original endowments and foundation, and to the general rules or the known usages of the country applicable to such cases.

to recommend fit persons where right of nomination rests with Government.

13. On the receipt of the report and information required by the preceding clause, the Board of Revenue shall either appoint the person or persons nominated for their approval, or shall make such other provision for the trust, management or superintendence, as may to them seem right and fit, with reference to the nature and conditions of the endowment, having previously called for any further information from the local agents that may appear to them to be requisite.

Board to appoint persons, or make other provisions for trust with reference to conditions of endowment.

14. Nothing contained in this Regulation shall be construed to preclude any individual who may conceive that he has just grounds of complaint on account of any orders which may be passed by any of the before-mentioned authorities with respect to the appropriation of any lands or buildings, or of any rents and revenues from lands, of the nature of those before described, from suing in the mode and form prescribed by the Regulations where Government or public officers are parties ; or under the general provisions of the Regulations, if the suit be brought against a competitor or other private person, for the recovery thereof in the regular course of law, or for compensation in damages for any loss or injury supposed to have been unduly sustained by him.

Persons feeling injured by orders under Regulation may sue for recovery of rights or for damages.

15. It is to be clearly understood that the object of the present Regulation is solely to provide for the due appropriation of lands or other endowments granted for public purposes agreeably to the intent of the grantor, and not to resume any part of them or of their produce, for the benefit of Government. In like manner it is fully intended that all buildings erected by any former or the present Government, or by individuals, for the convenience of the public, should be exclusively appropriated to that purpose, with the exception of such as have fallen to decay and cannot be conveniently repaired or which can no longer contribute to the accommodation of the community.

Object of Regulation.

MADRAS REGULATION II OF 1819.<sup>1</sup>

[THE MADRAS STATE PRISONERS REGULATION, 1819.]

[4th March 1819.]

A Regulation for the confinement of State Prisoners.

Preamble.

WHEREAS reasons of State policy occasionally render it necessary to place under personal restraint individuals against

This Regulation was declared by the Laws Local Extent Act, 1874 (XV of 1874), section 4 and the second schedule—to be in force in the whole of the Presidency of Madras except the territories mentioned in the sixth schedule to that Act.

It has been declared in force in the Scheduled Districts in Ganjam and Vizagapatam by notification under s. 3 (a) of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874)—see Gazette of India, 1898, Pt. I, p. 869, and Fort St. George Gazette, 1898, Pt. I, p. 666; in the Rampa Country—see notification No. 1151, Gazette of India, 1879, Pt. I, p. 630, and Fort St. George Gazette, 1879, Pt. I, p. 723.

It has been extended, by notification under s. 5 of the same Act, to the Taluks of Bhadrachalam and Rakapilli—see Fort St. George Gazette, 1879 Pt. I, p. 722, and Gazette of India, 1879, Pt. I, p. 630.

The Regulation has been declared by a notification under section 3, clause (a) of the scheduled Districts Act, to be in force in the Dutcharti and Guditeru Muttas of the Godavari Agency—see Fort St. George Gazette 1930, Part I, page 553.

whom there may not be sufficient ground to institute any judicial proceeding, or when such proceeding may not be adapted to the nature of the case, or may for other reasons be unadvisable or improper ; and whereas it is fit that, in every case of the nature herein referred to, the determination to be taken should proceed immediately from the authority of the Governor in Council ; and whereas the ends of justice require that, when it may be determined that any person shall be placed under personal restraint otherwise than in pursuance of some judicial proceeding, the grounds of such determination should from time to time come under revision and the person affected thereby should at all times be allowed freely to bring to the notice of the Governor in Council all circumstances relating either to the supposed grounds of such determination, or to the manner in which it may be executed ; and whereas the ends of justice also require that due attention be paid to the health of every State prisoner confined under this Regulation, and that suitable provision be made for his support, according to his rank in life and to his own wants and those of his family ; and whereas the reasons above declared sometimes render it necessary that the estates and lands of zamindars, taluqdars and others, situated within the territories dependent on the Presidency of Fort St. George, should be attached and placed under the temporary management of the Revenue-authorities, without having recourse to any judicial proceeding ; and whereas it is desirable to make such legal provisions as may secure from injury the just rights and interests of individuals whose estates may be so attached under the direct authority of Government ; the Governor in Council has enacted the following rules, which are to take effect throughout the Provinces immediately subject to the Presidency of Fort St. George * *.<sup>1</sup>

2. First.—When the reasons stated in the preamble of this Regulation may seem to the Governor in Council to require that an individual should be placed under personal restraint, without any immediate view to ulterior proceedings of a judicial nature, a warrant of commitment under the authority of the Governor in Council, and under the hand of the Chief Secretary, or of one of the Secretaries to Government, shall be issued to the officer in whose custody such person is to be placed.

Procedure in placing persons under restraint as State prisoners.

Second.—The warrant of commitment shall be according to the form prescribed in the Appendix to this Regulation.

4. [State prisoners to be periodically visited.] Rep., Act XVI of 1874.

Allowance to be appropriated for support of State prisoner.

7. Every officer in whose custody any State prisoner may be placed shall take care that the allowance fixed for the support of such State prisoner is duly appropriated to that object.

8. [Foregoing provisions made applicable to persons already confined as State prisoners.] Rep., Act XII of 1876.

9. Whenever the Governor in Council, for the reasons declared in the preamble to this Regulation, shall judge it necessary to attach the estates or lands of any zamindar, jagirdar, taluqdar or other person, without any previous decision of a Court of Justice or other judicial proceeding, the grounds on which the resolution of Government may have been adopted, and such other information connected with the case as may appear essential, shall be communicated, under the hand of one of the Secretaries to Government, to the Judge of the district in which the lands or estates may be situated * *<sup>1</sup> and to the Sadr and Faujdari Adalat.

A Regulation declaring the true intent and meaning of<sup>2</sup>[Regulation XXV of 1802, so far as it relates] to the rights of the actual cultivators of the soil.

DOUBTS having occurred regarding the meaning and construction of the Regulations enacted for insuring the prompt realization of the rents due and payable by the actual cultivators of the soil, either to the officers of Government on the public account, or to zamindars or others entitled to receive the same by inheritance or purchase, or in virtue of special grants issued by the ruling authority on terms of a permanent or temporary settlement of the land-revenue ; it has become necessary for Government to declare that in passing those regulations it had no intention of authorizing any infringement or limitation of any established rights of any class of its subjects whatsoever, such rights being properly determinable by judicial investigation only. ### MADRAS REGULATION I OF 1830.<sup>1</sup>

[THE MADRAS SATI REGULATION, 1830.]

[2nd February, 1830.]

A Regulation for declaring the practice of Sati, or of burning or burying alive the Widows of Hindus, illegal, and punishable by the Criminal Courts.

Preamble.

THE practice of sati, or of burning or burying alive the widows of Hindus, is revolting to the feelings of human nature ; it is nowhere enjoined by the religion of the Hindus as an imperative duty ; on the contrary, a life of purity and retirement on the part of the widow is more especially and preferably inculcated, and by a vast majority of that people throughout India the practice is not kept up nor observed ; in some extensive districts it does not exist : in those in which it has been most frequent it is notorious that in many instances acts of atrocity have been perpetrated which have been shocking to the Hindus themselves, and in their eyes unlawful and wicked. The measures hitherto adopted to discourage and prevent such acts have failed of success, and the Governor in Council is deeply impressed with the conviction that the abuses in question cannot be effectually put an end to without abolishing the practice altogether. Actuated by these considerations the Governor in Council, without intending to depart from one of the first and most important principles of the system of British government in India, that all classes of the people be secure in the observance of their religious usages, so long as that system can be adhered to without violation of the paramount dictates of justice and humanity, has deemed it right

Should the parties assembled proceed, in defiance of these remonstrances, to carry the ceremony into effect, it shall be the duty of the Police-officers to use all lawful means in their power to prevent the sacrifice from taking place, and to apprehend the principal persons aiding and abetting in the performance of it ; and, in the event of being unable to apprehend them, they shall endeavour to ascertain their names and places of abode, and shall immediately communicate the whole of the particulars to the Magistrate or Joint Magistrate for his orders. (c) a protected thikádár, whether holding under a written lease or a verbal agreement, shall be entitled to a renewal of his lease on its expiry, on his agreeing to farm his village at a fair and equitable thiká-jama ;

(d) in the event of any dispute arising between the proprietor and the protected thikádár as to what is a fair and equitable thiká-jama, the matter shall be referred to the Deputy Commissioner, whose decision shall, subject to revision by the Commissioner and Chief Commissioner, be final ;

(e) not more than one enhancement of the thiká-jama or, where it is so specially provided in the terms of the settlement of the village, no enhancement of the thiká-jama shall be imposed on a protected thikádár during the currency of a settlement ;

(7) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of any protected thikádár, farmer or gaontia to ejectment in execution of a decree for ejectment passed, in accordance with any law for the time being in force and not inconsistent with this Act, on the ground—

- (a) that he has failed to pay the thiká-jama legally payable by him ;
- (b) that he has diverted the culturable land of the village to non-agricultural purposes, or is chargeable with some act or omission which renders him liable to be ejected.

66. When the whole of the land comprised in a mahál is held in severalty, the Settlement-officer shall apportion to the several holdings the amount with which such land is assessed under a settlement or sub-settlement.

Settlement-officer to apportion assessment over lands held in severalty :

When only part of the land comprised in a mahál is held in severalty the Settlement-officer shall apportion such amount to the part held in common and the part held in severalty, and shall further apportion to the several holdings the amount to which they are liable under the former apportionment.

after receipt of sanction to annulment of Persons entitled to perfect partition.

136 B. Any recorded co-sharer in a mahál, not being a mahál—

(2) Where from any cause notice cannot be personally served on any co-sharer, the notification shall be deemed sufficient notice under this section.

136 F. If on or before the day specified any objection is made to the partition by any co-sharer in possession, and the Deputy Commissioner on a consideration of such objection is of opinion that there is good and sufficient reason why the partition should be absolutely disallowed, he may refuse the application, recording the grounds of his refusal.

Objection to partition.

136 G. (1) If the objection raises any question of title or of proprietary right which has not been already determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction, the Deputy Commissioner may either decline to grant the application until the question in dispute has been determined by a competent Court, or may proceed to inquire into the merits of the objection.

Objection raising question of title.

(2) In the latter case the Deputy Commissioner, after making the necessary inquiry and taking such evidence as may be adduced, shall record a judgment declaring the nature and extent of the interests of the party or parties applying for the partition, and of any other party or parties who may be affected thereby.

(3) The procedure to be observed by the Deputy Commissioner in trying such cases shall be that laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure for the trial of original suits, and he may, with the consent of the parties, refer any question arising in such case to arbitration, and the provisions of Chapter XXXVII of the same Code<sup>1</sup> relative to arbitration shall apply to such references.

136 H. (1) All decrees and orders passed by the Deputy Commissioner under the last foregoing section deciding the rights of parties shall be held to be decrees and orders of a Court of Civil Judicature, and shall be open to appeal as if passed by the Court of the Deputy Commissioner acting as a Court of Civil Judicature of first instance under the Central Provinces Civil Courts Act, 1885<sup>2</sup>.

Proceeding to be recorded by the Deputy Commissioner
before making partition.

136 K. Before commencing to make the partition, the Deputy Commissioner shall record a proceeding specifying the lands held in severalty, if any, and the land held in common, and laying down the principles to be followed in making the partition, with particulars of the method on which such principles are to be applied.

Each pattī to be made as compact as possible.

136 L. (1) The pattī of each sharer shall be made as compact as possible :

Provided that so far as may be compatible with fairness of partition, lands held in severalty shall be left in the possession of the parties holding the same.

(2) No partition shall be disallowed solely on the ground of incompactness.

Rule when house of one sharer is included in the pattī of another.

136 M. (1) If in making the partition it be necessary to include in any pattī the land occupied by a dwelling-house or other building in the possession of another co-sharer, such other co-sharer shall be allowed to retain it, with any buildings thereon, on condition of his paying a reasonable ground-rent for it to the sharer into whose pattī it may fall.

(2) The limits of such land and the rent to be paid for it shall be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner.

Sir-land belonging to one sharer not to be included without his consent in another

sharer.

136 N. (1) No sir-land belonging to any co-sharer shall be included in the pattī assigned on partition to another co-sharer, unless with the consent of the co-sharer who cultivates it or unless the partition cannot otherwise be conveniently carried out.

(2) If such land be so included and after partition such co-sharer continues to cultivate it, he shall be recorded as an occupancy-tenant in respect of such land, and his rent shall be fixed by order of the Deputy Commissioner.

Rule as to tanks, wells and other irrigation-works.

136 O. (1) Tanks, wells, water-courses and embankments shall be treated as attached to the land for the benefit of which they were originally made.

(2) Where, from the extent, situation or construction of such works, it is found necessary that they should continue the joint property of the proprietors of two or more of the patts into which the mahál may be divided, the Deputy Commissioner shall determine the extent to which the proprietors of each patti may make use of the said works, and the proportion of the charges for repairs of such works to be borne by such proprietors respectively, and the manner in which the profits, if any, derived from such works shall be divided.

136 P. (1) Places of worship and burial-grounds held in common previous to the partition of a mahál shall continue to be so held unless the parties otherwise agree among themselves.

Deputy Commissioner may dismiss case for non-payment of costs or may quash proceedings.

(2) If at any stage of the proceedings there appears to be any reason for stopping the partition, the Deputy Commissioner may stay the partition and order the proceedings to be quashed, recording his reasons for so doing.

136 R. On completion of the partition, the Deputy commissioner shall submit the proceedings to the Commissioner, who may either uphold the partition proposed or modify it or quash the proceedings, and a partition shall not take effect until it has been sanctioned by him.

Commissioner's sanction to partition necessary.

136 S. (1) On a partition being sanctioned by the Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner shall publish a notification of the fact at his office and at some conspicuous place in the village or villages of the mahál of which partitional patts formed part.

When partition sanctioned, notification to be published.

(2) The partition shall take effect from the first day of the agricultural year next after the date of such notification.

Perfect Partition.

136 T. (1) Applications for perfect partition shall be made, in such form as may be prescribed by the Chief Commissioner, to the Settlement-officer charged with the settlement of the area in which the mahál is situate.

Applications for perfect partition to be made to Settlement-officer.

(2) Such applications must show that the share which it is desired to have formed into a separate mahál is already held in severalty saving such portion of it as may be impartible. An application failing to show this shall be rejected.

Settlement-officer may declare shares in maháls to be separate maháls.

136 U. (1) Subject to any rules which may be made by the Chief Commissioner, the Settlement-officer, if he is satisfied of the truth of the matters stated in the application, may, if he thinks fit, declare the share to be a separate mahál, and may assess it separately to land-revenue :

Provided that no share shall be declared to be a separate mahál till the proprietors of other shares in the mahál have been given an opportunity of objecting to its perfect partition.

(2) Except with the sanction of the Commissioner, an incompact estate shall not be declared to be a separate mahál.

Supplemental Provisions.

136 W. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, when an estate, in respect of the whole or part of which imperfect partition is sought, consists of two or more maháls, or shares in two or more maháls, the partition may be effected by the distribution of such maháls or shares between the co-sharers, without imperfect partition of the maháls or shares, or partly by such distribution and partly by imperfect partition, as the Deputy Commissioner may, of his own motion, or on the application of the parties, deem fit. In making the partition referred to in this section, the Deputy Commissioner shall be guided by the provisions of this Chapter so far as they are compatible with the distribution as aforesaid.

CHAPTER XI.

VILLAGE-OFFICERS AND PATWÁRIS.

Power to make rules as to officers.

137. The Chief Commissioner may make rules regulating the appointment, remuneration, suspension and removal of lambardárs, sub-lambardárs, <sup>2</sup>[mukaddams and patéls] :

<sup>1</sup> The present s. 136 W was inserted by s. 9 of the Central Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1898 (XII of 1898), in place of the former section, which was inserted as part of Ch. XA by the Central Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1889 (XVI of 1889), but which was repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891).

<sup>2</sup> These words in square brackets were substituted for the words " and mukaddams " by the Central Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1889 (XVI of 1889), s. 27 (1).

Provided that, except with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, proprietors, other than málik-mákbuzás, shall not be liable to pay, on account of the aggregate remuneration of lambardárs or sub-lambardárs and mukaddams, a sum exceeding five per cent on the land revenue which is assessed on their land, or which, when their land is free from revenue, would in the judgment of the Deputy Commissioner, be assessed on their land if it were subject to assessment.

In framing rules for the appointment under this section of lambardárs and sub-lambardárs for any mahál, the Chief Commissioner shall have regard among other matters to local custom and hereditary claims, and to entries on the subject in the record-of-rights of such mahál.

<sup>1</sup>The lambardár of the village shall ordinarily also be the mukaddam. When a lambardár who does not reside in the village is appointed mukaddam thereof, he shall, subject to the approval of the Deputy Commissioner, appoint an agent to perform the duties of a mukaddam. If there are resident co-sharers in the village the non-resident lambardar shall appoint one of them to be his agent unless the Deputy Commissioner for special reasons allows him to appoint some other person. If a mukaddam fails within a reasonable time to appoint an agent with the approval of the Deputy Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner shall himself appoint an agent and shall fix the amount of his remuneration, which shall be paid to him by the mukaddam.

<sup>1</sup>An agent appointed under this section shall be deemed to have the powers conferred on, and to be responsible for the performance of the duties prescribed with regard to mukaddams by this Act and the rules made hereunder.

<sup>1</sup>Any fine imposed on such agent for a breach of the provisions of this Act or the rules made hereunder may be recovered from the mukaddam whose agent he is by the Deputy Commissioner.

(a) A, as the owner of a certain house, has a right of way thither over his neighbour B's land for purposes connected with the beneficial enjoyment of the house. This is an easement.

(b) A, as the owner of a certain house, has the right to go on his neighbour B's land and to take water for the purposes of his household out of a spring therein. This is an easement.

(c) A, as the owner of a certain house, has the right to conduct water from B's stream to supply the fountains in the garden attached to the house. This is an easement.

(d) A, as the owner of a certain house and farm, has the right to graze a certain number of his own cattle on B's field, or to take, for the purpose of being used in the house, by himself, his family, guests, lodgers and servants, water or fish out of C's tank, or timber out of D's wood, or to use, for the purpose of manuring his land, the leaves which have fallen from the trees on E's land. These are easements.

(e) A dedicates to the public the right to occupy the surface of certain land for the purpose of passing and re-passing. This right is not an easement.

(f) A is bound to cleanse a watercourse running through his land and keep it free from obstruction for the benefit of B, a lower riparian owner. This is not an easement.

5. Easements are either continuous or discontinuous, apparent or non-apparent. Continuous and discontinuous, apparent and non-apparent,
easements.

A continuous easement is one whose enjoyment is or may be continual without the act of man.

A discontinuous easement is one that needs the act of man for its enjoyment.

An apparent easement is one the existence of which is shown by some permanent sign which upon careful inspection by a competent person would be visible to him.

A non-apparent easement is one that has no such sign.

Illustrations.

(a) A right annexed to B's house to receive light by the windows without obstruction by his neighbour A. This is a continuous easement.

(b) A right of way annexed to A's house over B's land. This is a discontinuous easement.

(c) Rights annexed to A's land to lead water thither across B's land by an aqueduct and to draw off water thence by a drain. The drain would be discovered upon careful inspection by a person conversant with such matters. These are apparent easements.

(d) A right annexed to A's house to prevent B from building on his own land. This is a non-apparent easement.

Easement
for limited time or on condition.

6. An easement may be permanent or for a term of years or other limited period, or subject to periodical interruption, or exercisable only at a certain place, or at certain times, or between certain hours, or for a particular purpose, or on condition that it shall commence or become void or voidable on the happening of a specified event or the performance or non-performance of a specified act.

Easements
restrictive of certain rights.
Exclusive right to enjoy.

7. Easements are restrictions of one or other of the following rights (namely) :—

(a) The exclusive right of every owner of immovable property (subject to any law for the time being in force) to enjoy and dispose of the same and all products thereof and accessions thereto.

(b) The right of every owner of immovable property (subject to any law for the time being in force) to enjoy without disturbance by another the natural advantages arising from its situation.

Rights to advantages arising from situation.

(a) The exclusive right of every owner of land in a town to build on such land, subject to any municipal law for the time being in force.

(b) The right of every owner of land that the air passing thereto shall not be unreasonably polluted by other persons.

(c) The right of every owner of a house that his physical comfort shall not be interfered with materially and unreasonably by noise or vibration caused by any other person.

(d) The right of every owner of land to so much light and air as pass vertically thereto.

(e) The right of every owner of land that such land, in its natural condition, shall have the support naturally rendered by the subjacent and adjacent soil of another person.

Explanation.—Land is in its natural condition when it is not excavated and not subjected to artificial pressure; and the “subjacent and the adjacent soil” mentioned in this illustration means such soil only as in its natural condition would support the dominant heritage in its natural condition.

(f) The right of every owner of land that, within his own limits, the water which naturally passes or percolates by, over or through his land shall not, before so passing or percolating, be unreasonably polluted by other persons.

(g) The right of every owner of land to collect and dispose within his own limits of all water under the land which does not pass in a defined channel and all water on its surface which does not pass in a defined channel.

(h) The right of every owner of land that the water of every natural stream which passes by, through or over his land in a defined natural channel shall be allowed by other persons to flow within such owner's limits without interruption and without material alteration in quantity, direction, force or temperature; the right of every owner of land abutting on a natural lake or pond into or out of which a natural stream flows, that the water of such lake or pond shall be allowed by other persons to remain within such owner's limits without material alteration in quantity or temperature.

(i) The right of every owner of upper land that water naturally rising in, or falling on such land, and not passing in defined channels, shall be allowed by the owner of adjacent lower land, to run naturally thereto.

(j) The right of every owner of land abutting on a natural stream, lake or pond to use and consume its water for drinking, household purposes and watering his cattle and sheep; and the right of every such owner to use and consume the water for irrigating such land, and for the purposes of any manufactory situate thereon, provided that he does not thereby cause material injury to other like owners.

Explanation.—A natural stream is a stream, whether permanent or intermittent, tidal or tideless, on the surface of land or underground, which flows by the operation of nature only and in a natural and known course.

CHAPTER II.

THE IMPOSITION, ACQUISITION AND TRANSFER OF EASEMENTS.

8. An easement may be imposed by any one in the circumstances, and to the extent, in and to which he may transfer his interest in the heritage on which the liability is to be imposed. Who may impose easements.

Illustrations.

(a) A is tenant of B's land under a lease for an unexpired term of twenty years, and has power to transfer his interest under the lease. A may impose an easement on the land to continue during the time that the lease exists or for any shorter period.

(b) A is tenant for his life of certain land with remainder to B absolutely. A cannot, unless with B's consent, impose an easement thereon which will continue after the determination of his life-interest.

(c) A, B and C are co-owners of certain land. A cannot, without the consent of B and C, impose an easement on the land or on any part thereof.

(d) A and B are lessees of the same lessor, A of a field X for a term of five years, and B of a field Y for a term of ten years. A's interest under his lease is transferable; B's is not. A may impose on X, in favour of B, a right of way terminable with A's lease.

9. Subject to the provisions of section 8, a servient owner may impose on the servient heritage any easement that does not lessen the utility of the existing easement. But he cannot, without the consent of the dominant owner, impose an easement on the servient heritage which would lessen such utility. Servient owners.

Illustrations.

(a) A has, in respect of his mill, a right to the uninterrupted flow thereto, from sunrise to noon, of the water of B's stream. B may grant to C the right to divert the water of the stream from noon to sunset: provided that A's supply is not thereby diminished.

(b) A has, in respect of his house, a right of way over B's land. B may grant to C, as the owner of a neighbouring farm, the right to feed his cattle on the grass growing on the way: provided that A's right of way is not thereby obstructed.

Lessor and mortgagor.

10. Subject to the provisions of section 8, a lessor may impose, on the property leased, any easement that does not derogate from the rights of the lessee as such, and a mortgagor may impose, on the property mortgaged, any easement that does not render the security insufficient. But a lessor or mortgagor cannot, without the consent of the lessee or mortgagee, impose any other easement on such property, unless it be to take effect on the termination of the lease or the redemption of the mortgage.

Explanation.—A security is insufficient within the meaning of this section unless the value of the mortgaged property exceeds by one-third, or, if consisting of buildings, exceeds by one-half, the amount for the time being due on the mortgage.

Lessee.

11. No lessee or other person having a derivative interest may impose on the property held by him as such an easement to take effect after the expiration of his own interest, or in derogation of the right of the lessor or the superior proprietor.

Who may acquire easements.

12. An easement may be acquired by the owner of the immovable property for the beneficial enjoyment of which the right is created, or on his behalf by any person in possession of the same.

One of two or more co-owners of immovable property may, as such, with or without the consent of the other or others, acquire an easement for the beneficial enjoyment of such property.

No lessee of immovable property can acquire, for the beneficial enjoyment of other immovable property of his own, an easement in or over the property comprised in his lease.

Easements
of necessity and quasi-
easements.

13. Where one person transfers or bequeaths immovable property to another—

- (a) if an easement in other immovable property of the transferor or testator is necessary for enjoying the subject of the transfer or bequest, the transferee or legatee shall be entitled to such easement; or,
- (b) if such an easement is apparent and continuous and necessary for enjoying the said subject as it was enjoyed when the transfer or bequest took effect, the transferee or legatee shall, unless a different intention is expressed or necessarily implied, be entitled to such easement;

- (c) if an easement in the subject of the transfer or bequest is necessary for enjoying other immovable property of the transferor or testator, the transferor or the legal representative of the testator shall be entitled to such easement ; or,
- (d) if such an easement is apparent and continuous and necessary for enjoying the said property as it was enjoyed when the transfer or bequest took effect, the transferor, or the legal representative of the testator, shall, unless a different intention is expressed or necessarily implied, be entitled to such easement.

Where a partition is made of the joint property of several persons---

- (e) if an easement over the share of one of them is necessary for enjoying the share of another of them, the latter shall be entitled to such easement, or,
- (f) if such an easement is apparent and continuous and necessary for enjoying the share of the latter as it was enjoyed when the partition took effect, he shall, unless a different intention is expressed or necessarily implied, be entitled to such easement.

The easements mentioned in this section, clauses (a), (c) and (e), are called easements of necessity.

Where immovable property passes by operation of law, the persons from and to whom it so passes are, for the purpose of this section, to be deemed, respectively, the transferor and transferee.

Illustrations.

(a) A sells B a field then used for agricultural purposes only. It is inaccessible except by passing over A's adjoining land or by trespassing on the land of a stranger. B is entitled to a right of way, for agricultural purposes only, over A's adjoining land to the field sold.

(b) A, the owner of two fields, sells one to B and retains the other. The field retained was at the date of the sale used for agricultural purposes only, and is inaccessible except by passing over the field sold to B. A is entitled to a right of way, for agricultural purposes only, over B's field to the field retained.

(c) A sells B a house with windows overlooking A's land, which A retains. The light which passes over A's land to the windows is necessary for enjoying the house as it was enjoyed when the sale took effect. B is entitled to the light, and A cannot afterwards obstruct it by building on his land.

(d) A sells B a house with windows overlooking A's land. The light passing over A's land to the windows is necessary for enjoying the house as it was enjoyed when the sale took effect. Afterwards A sells the land to C. Here C cannot obstruct the light by building on the land, for he takes it subject to the burdens to which it was subject in A's hands.

(e) A is the owner of a house and adjoining land. The house has windows overlooking the land. A simultaneously sells the house to B and the land to C. The light passing over the land is necessary for enjoying the house as it was enjoyed when the sale took effect. Here A impliedly grants B a right to the light, and C takes the land subject to the restriction that he may not build so as to obstruct such light.

(f) A is the owner of a house and adjoining land. The house has windows overlooking the land. A, retaining the house, sells the land to B, without expressly reserving any easement. The light passing over the land is necessary for enjoying the house as it was enjoyed when the sale took effect. A is entitled to the light and B cannot build on the land so as to obstruct such light.

(g) A, the owner of a house, sells B a factory built on adjoining land. B is entitled, as against A, to pollute the air, when necessary, with smoke and vapours from the factory.

(h) A, the owner of two adjoining houses, Y and Z, sells Y to B and retains Z. B is entitled to the benefit of all the gutters and drains common to the two houses and necessary for enjoying Y as it was enjoyed when the sale took effect, and A is entitled to the benefit of all the gutters and drains common to the two houses and necessary for enjoying Z as it was enjoyed when the sale took effect.

(i) A, the owner of two adjoining buildings, sells one to B, retaining the other. B is entitled to a right to lateral support from A's building, and A is entitled to a right to lateral support from B's building.

(j) A, the owner of two adjoining buildings, sells one to B and the other to C. C is entitled to lateral support from B's building, and B is entitled to lateral support from C's building.

(k) A grants lands to B for the purpose of building a house thereon. B is entitled to such amount of lateral and subjacent support from A's land as is necessary for the safety of the house.

(l) Under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870,<sup>1</sup> a Railway Company compulsorily acquires a portion of B's land for the purpose of making a siding. The Company is entitled to such amount of lateral support from B's adjoining land as is essential for the safety of the siding. X of 1870

(m) Owing to the partition of joint property, A becomes the owner of an upper room in a building, and B becomes the owner of the portion of the building immediately beneath it. A is entitled to such amount of vertical support from B's portion as is essential for the safety of the upper room.

(n) A lets a house and grounds to B for a particular business. B has no access to them other than by crossing A's land. B is entitled to a right of way over that land suitable to the business to be carried on by B in the house and grounds.

Direction of way of necessity.

14. When <sup>2</sup>[a right] to a way of necessity is created under section 13, the transferor, the legal representative of the testator or the owner of the share over which the right is exercised, as the case may be, is entitled to set out the way ; but it must be reasonably convenient for the dominant owner.

When the person so entitled to set out the way refuses or neglects to do so, the dominant owner may set it out.

Acquisition
by prescription.

15. Where the access and use of light or air to and for any building have been peaceably enjoyed therewith, as an easement, without interruption, and for twenty years, and where support from one person's land, or things affixed thereto, has been peaceably received by another person's land subjected to artificial pressure, or by things affixed thereto, as an easement, without interruption, and for twenty years, and where a right of way or any other easement has been peaceably and openly enjoyed by any person claiming title thereto, as an easement, and as of right, without interruption, and for twenty years, the right to such access and use of light or air, support or other easement shall be absolute.

Each of the said periods of twenty years shall be taken to be a period ending within two years next before the institution of the suit wherein the claim to which such period relates is contested.

Explanation I.—Nothing is an enjoyment within the meaning of this section when it has been had in pursuance of an agreement with the owner or occupier of the property over which the right is claimed, and it is apparent from the agreement that such right has not been granted as an easement, or, if granted as an easement, that it has been granted for a limited period, or subject to a condition on the fulfilment of which it is to cease.

Explanation II.—Nothing is an interruption within the meaning of this section unless where there is an actual cessation of the enjoyment by reason of an obstruction by the act of some person other than the claimant, and unless such obstruction is submitted to or acquiesced in for one year after the claimant has notice thereof and of the person making or authorizing the same to be made.

Explanation III.—Suspension of enjoyment in pursuance of a contract between the dominant and servient owners is not an interruption within the meaning of this section.

Explanation IV.—In the case of an easement to pollute water, the said period of twenty years begins when the pollution first prejudices perceptibly the servient heritage.

When the property over which a right is claimed under this section belongs to Government, this section shall be read as if for the words “twenty years” the words “sixty years” were substituted.

Illustrations.

(a) A suit is brought in 1883 for obstructing a right of way. The defendant admits the obstruction, but denies the right of way. The plaintiff proves that the right was peaceably and openly enjoyed by him, claiming title thereto as an easement and as of right, without interruption, from 1st January, 1862, to 1st January, 1882. The plaintiff is entitled to judgment.

(b) In a like suit the plaintiff shows that the right was peaceably and openly enjoyed by him for twenty years. The defendant proves that for a year of that time the plaintiff was entitled to possession of the servient heritage as lessee thereof and enjoyed the right as such lessee. The suit shall be dismissed, for the right of way has not been enjoyed “as an easement” for twenty years.

(c) In a like suit the plaintiff shows that the right was peaceably and openly enjoyed by him for twenty years. The defendant proves that the plaintiff on one occasion during the twenty years had admitted that the user was not of right and asked his leave to enjoy the right. The suit shall be dismissed, for the right of way has not been enjoyed “as of right” for twenty years.

Exclusion in favour of reversioner of servient
heritage.

16. Provided that, when any land upon, over or from which any easement has been enjoyed or derived has been held under or by virtue of any interest for life or any term of years exceeding three years from the granting thereof, the time of the enjoyment of such easement during the continuance of such interest or term shall be excluded in the computation of the said last-mentioned period of twenty years, in case the claim is, within three years next after the determination of such interest or term, resisted by the person entitled, on such determination, to the said land.

Illustration.

A sues for a declaration that he is entitled to a right of way over B's land. A proves that he has enjoyed the right for twenty-five years : but B shows that during ten of these years C had a life-interest in the land ; that on C's death B became entitled to the land ; and that within two years after C's death he contested A's claim to the right. The suit must be dismissed, as A, with reference to the provisions of this section, has only proved enjoyment for fifteen years.

Rights which cannot be acquired by prescription.

17. Easements acquired under section 15 are said to be acquired by prescription, and are called prescriptive rights.

None of the following rights can be so acquired :—

- (a) a right which would tend to the total destruction of the subject of the right, or the property on which, if the acquisition were made, liability would be imposed ;
- (b) a right to the free passage of light or air to an open space of ground ;
- (c) a right to surface-water not flowing in a stream and not permanently collected in a pool, tank or otherwise ;
- (d) a right to underground water not passing in a defined channel.

Customary
easements.

18. An easement may be acquired in virtue of a local custom. Such easements are called customary easements.

Illustrations.

(a) By the custom of a certain village every cultivator of village-land is entitled, as such, to graze his cattle on the common pasture. A, having become the tenant of a plot of uncultivated land in the village, breaks up and cultivates that plot. He thereby acquires an easement to graze his cattle in accordance with the custom.

(b) By the custom of a certain town no owner or occupier of a house can open a new window therein so as substantially to invade his neighbour's privacy. A builds a house in the town near B's house. A thereupon acquires an easement that B shall not open new windows in his house so as to command a view of the portions of A's house which are ordinarily excluded from observation, and B acquires a like easement with respect to A's house.

Transfer of dominant heritage passes
easement.

19. Where the dominant heritage is transferred or devolves, by act of parties or by operation of law, the transfer or devolution shall, unless a contrary intention appears, be deemed to pass the easement to the person in whose favour the transfer or devolution takes place.

Illustration.

A has certain land to which a right of way is annexed. A lets the land to B for twenty years. The right of way vests in B and his legal representative so long as the lease continues.

CHAPTER III.

THE INCIDENTS OF EASEMENTS.

20. The rules contained in this Chapter are controlled by any contract between the dominant and servient owners relating to the servient heritage, and by the provisions of the instrument of decree, if any, by which the easement referred to was imposed. Rules controlled by contract or title.

And, when any incident of any customary easement is inconsistent with such rules, nothing in this Chapter shall affect such incident. Incidents of customary easements.

21. An easement must not be used for any purpose not connected with the enjoyment of the dominant heritage. Bar to use unconnected with enjoyment.

Illustrations.

(a) A, as owner of a farm Y, has a right of way over B's land to Y. Lying beyond Y A has another farm Z, the beneficial enjoyment of which is not necessary for the beneficial enjoyment of Y. He must not use the easement for the purpose of passing to and from Z.

(b) A, as owner of a certain house, has a right of way to and from it. For the purpose of passing to and from the house the right may be used, not only by A, but by the members of his family, his guests, lodgers, servants, workmen, visitors and customers; for this is a purpose connected with the enjoyment of the dominant heritage. So, if A lets the house, he may use the right of way for the purpose of collecting the rent and seeing that the house is kept in repair.

22. The dominant owner must exercise his right in the mode which is least onerous to the servient owner; and, when the exercise of an easement can without detriment to the dominant owner be confined to a determinate part of the servient heritage, such exercise shall, at the request of the servient owner, be so confined. Exercise of easement. Confinement of exercise of easement.

(a) A has a right of way over B's field. A must enter the way at either end and not at any intermediate point.

(b) A has a right annexed to his house to cut thatching grass in B's swamp. A, when exercising his easement, must cut the grass so that the plants may not be destroyed.

23. Subject to the provisions of section 22, the dominant owner may, from time to time, alter the mode and place of enjoying the easement, provided that he does not thereby impose any additional burden on the servient heritage. Right to alter mode of enjoyment.

Exception.—The dominant owner of a right of way cannot vary his line of passage at pleasure, even though he does not thereby impose any additional burden on the servient heritage.

Illustrations.

(a) A, the owner of a saw-mill, has a right to a flow of water sufficient to work the mill. He may convert the saw-mill into a corn-mill, provided that it can be worked by the same amount of water.

(b) A has a right to discharge on B's land the rain-water from the eaves of A's house. This does not entitle A to advance his eaves if, by so doing, he imposes a greater burden on B's land.

(c) A, as the owner of a paper-mill, acquires a right to pollute a stream by pouring in the refuse-liquor produced by making in the mill-paper from rags. He may pollute the stream by pouring in similar liquor produced by making in the mill-paper by a new process from bamboos, provided that he does not substantially increase the amount, or injuriously change the nature, of the pollution.

(d) A, a riparian owner, acquires, as against the lower riparian owners, a prescriptive right to pollute a stream by throwing sawdust into it. This does not entitle A to pollute the stream by discharging into it poisonous liquor.

Right to do acts to secure
enjoyment.

24. The dominant owner is entitled, as against the servient owner, to do all acts necessary to secure the full enjoyment of the easement; but such acts must be done at such time and in such manner as, without detriment to the dominant owner, to cause the servient owner as little inconvenience as possible; and the dominant owner must repair, as far as practicable, the damage (if any) caused by the act to the servient heritage.

Accessory

Rights to do acts necessary to secure the full enjoyment of an easement are called accessory rights.

Illustrations.

(a) A has an easement to lay pipes in B's land to convey water to A's cistern. A may enter and dig the land in order to mend the pipes, but he must restore the surface to its original state.

(b) A has an easement of a drain through B's land. The sewer with which the drain communicates is altered. A may enter upon B's land and alter the drain, to adapt it to the new sewer, provided that he does not thereby impose any additional burden on B's land.

(c) A, as owner of a certain house, has a right of way over B's land. The way is out of repair, or a tree is blown down and falls across it. A may enter on B's land and repair the way or remove the tree from it.

(d) A, as owner of a certain field, has a right of way over B's land. B renders the way impassable. A may deviate from the way and pass over the adjoining land of B, provided that the deviation is reasonable.

(e) A, as owner of a certain house, has a right of way over B's field. A may remove rocks to make the way.

(f) A has an easement of support from B's wall. The wall gives way. A may enter upon B's land and repair the wall.

(g) A has an easement to have his land flooded by means of a dam in B's stream. The dam is half swept away by an inundation. A may enter upon B's land and repair the dam.

Liability for expenses necessary for preservation of easement.

25. The expenses incurred in constructing works, or making repairs, or doing any other act necessary for the use or preservation of an easement, must be defrayed by the dominant owner.

26. Where an easement is enjoyed by means of an artificial work, the dominant owner is liable to make compensation for any damage to the servient heritage arising from the want of repair of such work. Liability for damage from want of repair.

27. The servient owner is not bound to do anything for the benefit of the dominant heritage and he is entitled, as against the dominant owner, to use the servient heritage in any way consistent with the enjoyment of the easement: but he must not do any act tending to restrict the easement or to render its exercise less convenient. Servient owner not bound to do anything.

Illustrations.

(a) A, as owner of a house, has a right to lead water and send sewage through B's land. B is not bound as servient owner to clear the water course or scour the sewer.

(b) A grants a right of way through his land to B as owner of a field. A may feed his cattle on grass growing on the way, provided that B's right of way is not thereby obstructed; but he must not build a wall at the end of his land so as to prevent B from going beyond it, nor must he narrow the way so as to render the exercise of the right less easy than it was at the date of the grant.

(c) A, in respect of his house, is entitled to an easement of support from B's wall. B is not bound as servient owner to keep the wall standing and in repair. But he must not pull down or weaken the wall so as to make it incapable of rendering the necessary support.

(d) A, in respect of his mill, is entitled to a watercourse through B's land. B must not drive stakes so as to obstruct the watercourse.

(e) A, in respect of his house, is entitled to a certain quantity of light passing over B's land. B must not plant trees so as to obstruct the passage to A's windows of that quantity of light.

28. With respect to the extent of easements and the mode of their enjoyment, the following provisions shall take effect:— Extent of easements.

An easement of necessity is co-extensive with the necessity as it existed when the easement was imposed. Easement of necessity.

The extent of any other easement and the mode of its enjoyment must be fixed with reference to the probable intention of the parties, and the purpose for which the right was imposed or acquired. Other easements.

In the absence of evidence as to such intention and purpose—

(a) a right of way of any one kind does not include a right of way of any other kind: Right of way.

(b) the extent of a right to the passage of light or air to a certain window, door or other opening, imposed by a testamentary or non-testamentary instrument, is the quantity of light or air that entered the opening at the time the testator died or the non-testamentary instrument was made: Right to light or air acquired by grant.

(c) the extent of a prescriptive right to the passage of light or air to a certain window, door or other opening Prescriptive right to light or air.

is that quantity of light or air which has been accustomed to enter that opening during the whole of the prescriptive period irrespectively of the purposes for which it has been used :

Prescriptive right to pollute air and water.

(d) the extent of a prescriptive right to pollute air or water is the extent of the pollution at the commencement of the period of user on completion of which the right arose : and

Other prescriptive rights.

(e) the extent of every other prescriptive right and the mode of its enjoyment must be determined by the accustomed user of the right.

Increase of easement.

29. The dominant owner cannot, by merely altering or adding to the dominant heritage, substantially increase an easement.

Where an easement has been granted or bequeathed so that its extent shall be proportionate to the extent of the dominant heritage, if the dominant heritage is increased by alluvion, the easement is proportionately increased, and, if the dominant heritage is diminished by diluvion, the easement is proportionately diminished.

Save as aforesaid, no easement is affected by any change in the extent of the dominant or the servient heritage.

Illustrations.

(a) A, the owner of a mill, has acquired a prescriptive right to divert to his mill part of the water of a stream. A alters the machinery of his mill. He cannot thereby increase his right to divert water.

(b) A has acquired an easement to pollute a stream by carrying on a manufacture on its banks by which a certain quantity of foul matter is discharged into it. A extends his works and thereby increases the quantity discharged. He is responsible to the lower riparian owners for injury done by such increase.

(c) A, as the owner of a farm, has a right to take, for the purpose of manuring his farm, leaves which have fallen from the trees on B's land. A buys a field and unites it to his farm. A is not thereby entitled to take leaves to manure this field.

Partition of dominant heritage.

30. Where a dominant heritage is divided between two or more persons the easement becomes annexed to each of the shares, but not so as to increase substantially the burden on the servient heritage : provided that such annexation is consistent with the terms of the instrument, decree or revenue-proceeding (if any) under which the division was made, and, in the case of prescriptive rights, with the user during the prescriptive period.

Illustrations.

(a) A house to which a right of way by a particular path is annexed is divided into two parts, one of which is granted to A, the other to B. Each is entitled, in respect of his part, to a right of way by the same path.

(b) A house to which is annexed the right of drawing water from a well to the extent of fifty buckets a day is divided into two distinct heritages, one of which is granted to A, the other to B. A and B are each entitled, in respect of his heritage to draw from the well fifty buckets a day ; but the amount drawn by both must not exceed fifty buckets a day.

(c) A, having in respect of his house an easement of light, divides the house into three distinct heritages. Each of these continues to have the right to have its windows unobstructed.

31. In the case of excessive user of an easement the servient owner may, without prejudice to any other remedies to which he may be entitled, obstruct the user, but only on the servient heritage : provided that such user cannot be obstructed when the obstruction would interfere with the lawful enjoyment of the easement.

Obstruction
in case of excessive

Illustration.

A, having a right to the free passage over B's land of light to four windows six feet by four, increases their size and number. It is impossible to obstruct the passage of light to the new windows without also obstructing the passage of light to the ancient windows. B cannot obstruct the excessive user.

CHAPTER IV.

THE DISTURBANCE OF EASEMENTS.

32. The owner or occupier of the dominant heritage is entitled to enjoy the easement without disturbance by any other person.

without disturbance.

A, as owner of a house, has a right of way over B's land. C unlawfully enters on B's land and obstructs A in his right of way. A may sue C for compensation, not for the entry, but for the obstruction.

33. The owner of any interest in the dominant heritage, or the occupier of such heritage, may institute a suit for compensation for the disturbance of the easement or of any right accessory thereto : Provided that the disturbance has actually caused substantial damage to the plaintiff.

Suit for disturbance
of ease-

Explanation I.—The doing of any act likely to injure the plaintiff by affecting the evidence of the easement, or by materially diminishing the value of the dominant heritage, is substantial damage within the meaning of this section and section 34.

Explanation II.—Where the easement disturbed is a right to the free passage of light passing to the openings in a house, no damage is substantial within the meaning of this section unless it falls within the first explanation, or interferes materially with the physical comfort of the plaintiff, or prevents him from carrying on his accustomed business in the dominant heritage as beneficially as he had done previous to instituting the suit.

Explanation III.—Where the easement disturbed is a right to the free passage of air to the openings in a house, damage is substantial within the meaning of this section if it interferes materially with the physical comfort of the plaintiff, though it is not injurious to his health.

Illustrations.

(a) A places a permanent obstruction in a path over which B, as tenant of C's house, has a right of way. This is substantial damage to C, for it may affect the evidence of his reversionary right to the easement.

(b) A, as owner of a house, has a right to walk along one side of B's house. B builds a verandah overhanging the way about ten feet from the ground, and so as not to occasion any inconvenience to foot-passengers using the way. This is not substantial damage to A.

When cause of action arises for removal of support.

34. The removal of the means of support to which a dominant owner is entitled does not give rise to a right to recover compensation unless and until substantial damage is actually sustained.

Injunction to restrain disturbance.

35. Subject to the provisions of the Specific Relief Act, 1877, sections 52 to 57 (both inclusive) an injunction may be granted to restrain the disturbance of an easement—

(a) if the easement is actually disturbed—when compensation for such disturbance might be recovered under this Chapter :

(b) if the disturbance is only threatened or intended—when the act threatened or intended must necessarily, if performed, disturb the easement.

Abatement of obstruction of easement.

36. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 24, the dominant owner cannot himself abate a wrongful obstruction of an easement.

CHAPTER V.

THE EXTINCTION, SUSPENSION AND REVIVAL OF EASEMENTS.

Extinction by dissolution of right of servient owner.

37. When, from a cause which preceded the imposition of an easement, the person by whom it was imposed ceases to have any right in the servient heritage, the easement is extinguished.

Exception.—Nothing in this section applies to an easement lawfully imposed by a mortgagor in accordance with section 10.

Illustrations.

(a) A transfers Sultānpur to B on condition that he does not marry C. B imposes an easement on Sultānpur. Then B marries C. B's interest in Sultānpur ends, and with it the easement is extinguished.

(b) A, in 1860, let Sultānpur to B for thirty years from the date of the lease. B, in 1861, imposes an easement on the land in favour of C, who enjoys the easement peaceably and openly as an easement without interruption for twenty-nine years. B's interest in Sultānpur then ends, and with it C's easement.

(c) A and B, tenants of C, have permanent transferable interests in their respective holdings. A imposes on his holding an easement to draw water from a tank for the purpose of irrigating B's land. B enjoys the easement for twenty years. Then A's rent falls into arrear and his interest is sold. B's easement is extinguished.

(d) A mortgages Sultānpur to B, and lawfully imposes an easement on the land in favour of C in accordance with the provisions of section 10. The land is sold to D in satisfaction of the mortgage-debt. The easement is not thereby extinguished.

38. An easement is extinguished when the dominant owner releases it expressly or impliedly to the servient owner. Extinction by release.

Such release can be made only in the circumstances and to the extent in and to which the dominant owner can alienate the dominant heritage.

An easement may be released as to part only of the servient heritage.

Explanation I.—An easement is impliedly released—

- (a) where the dominant owner expressly authorises an act of a permanent nature to be done on the servient heritage, the necessary consequence of which is to prevent his future enjoyment of the easement, and such act is done in pursuance of such authority ;
- (b) where any permanent alteration is made in the dominant heritage of such a nature as to show that the dominant owner intended to cease to enjoy the easement in future.

Explanation II.—Mere non-user of an easement is not an implied release within the meaning of this section.

Illustrations.

(a) A, B and C are co-owners of a house to which an easement is annexed. A, without the consent of B and C, releases the easement. This release is effectual only as against A and his legal representative.

(b) A grants B an easement over A's land for the beneficial enjoyment of his house. B assigns the house to C, B then purports to release the easement. The release is ineffectual.

(c) A, having the right to discharge his eavesdroppings into B's yard, expressly authorises B to build over this yard to a height which will interfere with the discharge. B builds accordingly. A's easement is extinguished to the extent of the interference.

(d) A, having an easement of right to a window, builds up that window with bricks and mortar so as to manifest an intention to abandon the easement permanently. The easement is impliedly released.

(e) A, having a projecting roof by means of which he enjoys an easement to discharge eavesdroppings on B's land, permanently alters the roof so as to direct the rain-water into a different channel and discharge it on C's land. The easement is impliedly released.

39. An easement is extinguished when the servient owner, in exercise of a power reserved in this behalf, revokes the easement. Extinction by revocation.

40. An easement is extinguished where it has been imposed for a limited period, or acquired on condition that it shall become void on the performance or non-performance of a specified act, and the period expires or the condition is fulfilled. Extinction on expiration of limited period or happening of dissolving condition.

41. An easement of necessity is extinguished when the necessity comes to an end. Extinction on termination of necessity.

Illustration.

A grants B a field inaccessible except by passing over A's adjoining land. B afterwards purchases a part of that land over which he can pass to his field. The right of way over A's land which B had acquired is extinguished.

Extinction
of useless
easement.

42. An easement is extinguished when it becomes incapable of being at any time and under any circumstances beneficial to the dominant owner.

Extinction
by permanent change in dominant heritage.

43. Where, by any permanent change in the dominant heritage, the burden on the servient heritage is materially increased and cannot be reduced by the servient owner without interfering with the lawful enjoyment of the easement, the easement is extinguished, unless—

- (a) it was intended for the beneficial enjoyment of the dominant heritage, to whatever extent the easement should be used ; or
- (b) the injury caused to the servient owner by the change is so slight that no reasonable person would complain of it ; or
- (c) the easement is an easement of necessity.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to an easement entitling the dominant owner to support of the dominant heritage.

Extinction
on permanent alteration of servient heritage by superior force.

44. An easement is extinguished where the servient heritage is by superior force so permanently altered that the dominant owner can no longer enjoy such easement :

Provided that, where a way of necessity is destroyed by superior force, the dominant owner has a right to another way over the servient heritage ; and the provisions of section 14 apply to such way.

Illustrations.

(a) A grants to B, as the owner of a certain house, a right to fish in a river running through A's land. The river changes its course permanently and runs through C's land. B's easement is extinguished.

(b) Access to a path over which A has a right of way is permanently cut off by an earthquake. A's right is extinguished.

Extinction
by destruction of either heritage.

45. An easement is extinguished when either the dominant or the servient heritage is completely destroyed.

Illustration.

A has a right of way over a road running along the foot of a sea-cliff. The road is washed away by a permanent encroachment of the sea. A's easement is extinguished.

Extinction
by unity of ownership.

46. An easement is extinguished when the same person becomes entitled to the absolute ownership of the whole of the dominant and servient heritages.

Illustrations.

(a) A, as the owner of a house, has a right of way over B's field. A mortgages his house and B mortgages his field to C. Then C forecloses both mortgages and becomes thereby absolute owner of both house and field. The right of way is extinguished.

(b) The dominant owner acquires only part of the servient heritage the easement is not extinguished, except in the case illustrated in section 41.

(c) The servient owner acquires the dominant heritage in connection with a third person ; the easement is not extinguished.

(d) The separate owners of two separate dominant heritages jointly acquire the heritage which is servient to the two separate heritages ; the easements are not extinguished.

(e) The joint owners of the dominant heritage jointly acquire the servient heritage : the easement is extinguished.

(f) A single right of way exists over two servient heritages for the beneficial enjoyment of a single dominant heritage. The dominant owner acquires only one of the servient heritages. The easement is not extinguished.

(g) A has a right of way over B's road. B dedicates the road to the public. A's right of way is not extinguished.

47. A continuous easement is extinguished when it totally ceases to be enjoyed as such for an unbroken period of twenty years. Extinction by non-enjoyment.

A discontinuous easement is extinguished when, for a like period, it has not been enjoyed as such.

Such period shall be reckoned, in the case of a continuous easement, from the day on which its enjoyment was obstructed by the servient owner, or rendered impossible by the dominant owner ; and, in the case of a discontinuous easement, from the day on which it was last enjoyed by any person as dominant owner :

Provided that, if, in the case of a discontinuous easement, the dominant owner, within such period, registers, under the 877. Indian Registration Act, 1877<sup>1</sup>, a declaration of his intention to retain such easement, it shall not be extinguished until a period of twenty years has elapsed from the date of the registration.

Where an easement can be legally enjoyed only at a certain place, or at certain times, or between certain hours, or for a particular purpose, its enjoyment during the said period at another place, or at other times, or between other hours, or for another purpose, does not prevent its extinction under this section.

The circumstance that, during the said period, no one was in possession of the servient heritage, or that the easement could not be enjoyed, or that a right accessory thereto was enjoyed, or that the dominant owner was not aware of its existence, or that he enjoyed it in ignorance of his right to do so, does not prevent its extinction under this section.

An easement is not extinguished under this section—

- (a) where the cessation is in pursuance of a contract between the dominant and servient owners ;
- (b) where the dominant heritage is held in co-ownership, and one of the co-owners enjoys the easement within the said period ; or
- (c) where the easement is a necessary easement.

Where several heritages are respectively subject to rights of way for the benefit of a single heritage, and the ways are continuous, such rights shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be a single easement.

Illustration.

A has, as annexed to his house, rights of way from the high road thither over the heritages X and Z and the intervening heritage Y. Before the twenty years expire, A exercises his right of way over X. His rights of way over Y and Z are not extinguished.

Extinction
of accessory rights.

48. When an easement is extinguished, the rights (if any) accessory thereto are also extinguished.

Illustration

A has an easement to draw water from B's well. As accessory thereto, he has a right of way over B's land to and from the well. The easement to draw water is extinguished under section 47. The right of way is also extinguished.

Suspension of easement.

49. An easement is suspended when the dominant owner becomes entitled to possession of the servient heritage for a limited interest therein, or when the servient owner becomes entitled to possession of the dominant heritage for a limited interest therein.

Servient
owner not entitled to require continuance.

50. The servient owner has no right to require that an easement be continued ; and, notwithstanding the provisions of section 26, he is not entitled to compensation for damage caused to the servient heritage in consequence of the extinguishment or suspension of the easement, if the dominant owner has given to the servient owner such notice as will enable him, without unreasonable expense, to protect the servient heritage from such damage.

Compensation for damage caused by extinguish-
ment.

Where such notice has not been given, the servient owner is entitled to compensation for damage caused to the servient heritage in consequence of such extinguishment or suspension.

Illustration.

A, in exercise of an easement, diverts to his canal the water of B's stream. The diversion continues for many years, and during that time the bed of the stream partly fills up. A then abandons his easement, and restores the stream to its ancient course. B's land is consequently flooded. B sues A for compensation for the damage caused by the flooding. It is proved that A gave B a month's notice of his intention to abandon the easement, and that such notice was sufficient to enable B, without unreasonable expense, to have prevented the damage. The suit must be dismissed.

51. An easement extinguished under section 45 revives <sup>Revival of easements,</sup> (a) when the destroyed heritage is, before twenty years have expired, restored by the deposit of alluvion; (b) when the destroyed heritage is a servient building and before twenty years have expired such building is rebuilt upon the same site; and (c) when the destroyed heritage is a dominant building and before twenty years have expired, such building is rebuilt upon the same site and in such a manner as not to impose a greater burden on the servient heritage.

An easement extinguished under section 46 revives when the grant or bequest by which the unity of ownership was produced is set aside by the decree of a competent Court. A necessary easement extinguished under the same section revives when the unity of ownership ceases from any other cause.

A suspended easement revives if the cause of suspension is removed before the right is extinguished under section 47.

Illustration.

A, as the absolute owner of field Y, has a right of way thither over B's field Z. A obtains from B a lease of Z for twenty years. The easement is suspended so long as A remains lessee of Z. But when A assigns the lease to C or surrenders it to B, the right of way revives.

CHAPTER VI.

LICENCES.

52. Where one person grants to another or to a definite <sup>"Licence" defined.</sup> number of other persons, a right to do, or continue to do, in or upon the immovable property of the grantor, something which would, in the absence of such right, be unlawful, and such right does not amount to an easement or an interest in the property, the right is called a licence.

53. A licence may be granted by any one in the circum- <sup>Who may grant licence.</sup> stances and to the extent in and to which he may transfer his interests in the property affected by the licence.

54. The grant of a licence may be express or implied from <sup>Grant may be expressed or implied.</sup> the conduct of the grantor, and an agreement which purports to create an easement, but is ineffectual for that purpose, may operate to create a licence.

55. All licences necessary for the enjoyment of any interest, <sup>Accessory licences annexed by law.</sup> or the exercise of any right, are implied in the constitution of such interest or right. Such licences are called accessory licences.

Illustration.

A sells the trees growing on his land to B. B is entitled to go on the land and take away the trees.

Licence
when transferable.

56. Unless a different intention is expressed or necessarily implied, a licence to attend a place of public entertainment may be transferred by the licensee; but, save as aforesaid, a licence cannot be transferred by the licensee or exercised by his servants or agents.

Illustrations.

(a) A grants B a right to walk over A's field whenever he pleases. The right is not annexed to any immovable property of B. The right cannot be transferred.

(b) The Government grant B a licence to erect and use temporary grain-sheds on Government land. In the absence of express provision to the contrary, B's servants may enter on the land for the purpose of erecting sheds, erect the same, deposit grain therein and remove grain therefrom.

Grantor's duty to disclose defects.

57. The grantor of a licence is bound to disclose to the licensee any defect in the property affected by the licence, likely to be dangerous to the person or property of the licensee, of which the grantor is, and the licensee is not aware.

Grantor's
duty not to render property unsafe.

58. The grantor of a licence is bound not to do anything likely to render the property affected by the licence dangerous to the person or property of the licensee.

Grantor's
transferee not bound by licence.

59. When the grantor of the licence transfers the property affected thereby, the transferee is not as such bound by the licence.

Licence
when revocable.

60. A licence may be revoked by the grantor, unless—

(a) it is coupled with a transfer of property and such transfer is in force.

(b) the licensee, acting upon the licence, has executed a work of a permanent character and incurred expenses in the execution.

Revocation express or implied.

61. The revocation of a licence may be express or implied.

Illustrations.

(a) A the owner of a field, grants a licence to B to use a path across it. A, with intent to revoke the licence, locks a gate across the path. The licence is revoked.

(b) A, the owner of a field, grants a licence to B to stack hay on the field. A lets or sells the field to C. The licence is revoked.

Licence
when deemed revoked.

62. A licence is deemed to be revoked—

(a) when, from a cause preceding the grant of it, the grantor ceases to have any interest in the property affected by the licence :

(b) when the licensee releases it, expressly or impliedly, to the grantor or his representative :

(c) where it has been granted for a limited period, or required on condition that it shall become void on the performance or non-performance of a specified act, and the period expires or the condition is fulfilled :

1882 : Act XXI.] Madras Forest (Validation)

- (d) where the property affected by the licence is destroyed or by superior force so permanently altered that the licensee can no longer exercise his right :
- (e) where the licensee becomes entitled to the absolute ownership of the property affected by the licence :
- (f) where the licence is granted for a specified purpose and the purpose is attained, or abandoned, or becomes impracticable :
- (g) where the licence is granted to the licensee as holding a particular office, employment or character, and such office, employment or character ceases to exist :
- (h) where the licence totally ceases to be used as such for an unbroken period of twenty years, and such cessation is not in pursuance of a contract between the grantor and the licensee :
- (i) in the case of an accessory licence, when the interest or right to which it is accessory ceases to exist.

63. Where a licence is revoked, the licensee is entitled to a reasonable time to leave the property affected thereby and to remove any goods which he has been allowed to place on such property. Licensee's rights on revocation.

64. Where a licence has been granted for a consideration and the licensee without any fault of his own, is evicted by the grantor before he has fully enjoyed, under the licence, the right for which he contracted, he is entitled to recover compensation from the grantor. Licensee's rights on eviction.

ACT No. XI OF 1898.<sup>1</sup>

[THE CENTRAL PROVINCES TENANCY ACT, 1898.]

[21st October 1898.]

An Act to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Agricultural Tenancies in the Central Provinces.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to agricultural tenancies in the Central Provinces ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Central Provinces Tenancy Act, 1898.

(2) It extends to all the <sup>2</sup> territories for the time being administered by the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces ; and

(3) It shall come into force at once.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) the expressions “ agricultural year,” “ málík-mák-búzâ,” “ sîr-land,” “ survey-number,” “ record-of-rights ” and “ village ” have the meanings assigned to them, respectively, in the Central Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1881, XVIII of 18 as from time to time amended :

<sup>1</sup> For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 1897, Pt. V, p. 195 ; for Report of the Select Committee, see ibid., 1898, Pt. V p. 313, and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid., 1897, Pt. VI, p. 224 ; 1898, Pt. VI, pp. 369 and 373.

<sup>2</sup> The Act with certain modifications is in force in the Taluqs of Nugur, Albaka and Cherla, which ceased to be under the administration of the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces and became subject to the Government of Madras in pursuance of Proclamation No. 545, dated the 15th April, 1909, issued by the Governor-General in Council under s. 4 of the Government of India Act, 1865, with effect from 1st July 1909 : see Regulation I of 1909, s. 3, infra.

(2) “ arrear ” means an instalment or part of an instalment of rent which is not paid on or before the date on which it is payable :

(3) “ holding ” means a parcel of land held by a tenant of a landlord under one lease or one set of conditions :

(4) “ improvement ” means, with reference to a holding, any work which adds to the letting-value of the holding, which is suitable to the holding and consistent with the purpose for which it was let, and which, if not executed on the holding, is either executed directly for its benefit, or is, after execution, made directly beneficial to it.

Explanation I.—It includes the reclaiming, enclosing or clearing of lands for agricultural purposes ; but it does not include such embankments, temporary wells and water-channels as are made by tenants in the ordinary course of agriculture ; and no work executed by the tenant of a holding is an improvement if it substantially diminishes the value of any other part of the estate of his landlord.

Explanation II.—A work which benefits several holdings may be deemed to be, with respect to each of them, an improvement :

(5) “ land ” means land which is let or occupied for agricultural purposes or for purposes subservient to agriculture, and includes the sites of buildings appurtenant to such land :

(6) “ landlord ” means the person of whom a tenant holds land, and to whom the tenant is, or, but for special contract, would be, liable to pay rent for that land ;

(7) “ pay,” “ payable ” and “ payment,” used with reference to rent, include “ deliver,” “ deliverable ” and “ delivery ” :

(8) “ rent ” means whatever is paid, delivered or rendered, in money, kind or service, by a tenant on account of the use or occupation of land let to him :

(9) “ Revenue-officer ” and “ Settlement-officer ” in any provision of this Act, mean, respectively, such Revenue-officer or Settlement-officer appointed under the Central Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1881, as from time to time amended, as the Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, direct to discharge the functions of a Revenue-officer or Settlement-officer (as the case may be) under that provision : and

(10) “ tenant ” means a person who holds land of another person, and is, or but for a special contract, would be, liable to pay rent for that land to that other person. But it does not include a farmer, mortgagee or thikádár of proprietary rights :

Explanation I.—An inferior proprietor is not, as such, a tenant:

Explanation II.—The holder of a survey-number in a village let in farm by the Government, or held by a gaontia in the Sambalpūr District, is a tenant of the farmer or gaontia for the time being.

CHAPTER II.

OF TENANTS GENERALLY.

A.—Classification of Tenants.

Classes of tenants.

3. There shall be five classes of tenants, namely :—

- (1) absolute occupancy-tenants ;
- (2) occupancy-tenants ;
- (3) village-service-tenants ;
- (4) sub-tenants ; and
- (5) ordinary tenants.

B.—Provisions relating to rent.

Presumption as to amount of rent payable.

4. In all suits and proceedings between landlord and tenant, the rent payable for any agricultural year by a tenant in respect of his holding shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be the rent payable in respect of the holding in the agricultural year immediately preceding that year.

Date from which order fixing rent
operates.

5. Save as provided in sections 66 and 78, an order fixing, altering or commuting the rent of a holding on an application under this Act may, as the officer making the order thinks fit, take effect from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the application, or from any subsequent day, or, if it is made on the ground of increase, diminution or deterioration, of the holding, from the date of that increase, diminution, or deterioration or from any subsequent day.

Time for payment of rents.

6. Rent shall be payable in such instalments and on such dates as the Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, prescribe, and, in the absence of any such notification applicable to the case, according to the contract between the parties, or, where there is no such contract, according to local usage.

Rents payable to a number of landlords.

7. When two or more persons are landlords of a tenant in respect of the same holding, the tenant, subject to any rule which the Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, make in this behalf, and to any contract between the parties, shall not be bound to pay part of the rent of his holding to one of those persons and part to another or others ; and, subject as aforesaid, those persons shall, if the tenant so desires, appoint one of their number or some other person to receive the rent.

8. (a) When a landlord refuses to accept any instalment of rent payable in money when tendered to him by a tenant,

Power to deposit rent in certain cases with Revenue-officer.

(b) when a tenant, in the case mentioned in section 7, desires the appointment of a person to receive rent payable in money and the appointment is not made within a reasonable time, and,

(c) when a tenant in any case is doubtful as to the person entitled to receive rent payable in money, the tenant may apply to a Revenue-officer for permission to deposit in his Court the amount of rent which he believes to be due ; and that officer shall receive the deposit, if it appears to him, after examining the applicant, that he had reasonable grounds for making the application, and that it was made in good faith, and if the applicant pays the fee (if any) chargeable for the issue of the notice next hereinafter referred to.

9. (1) When a deposit has been so received it shall be deemed to be a payment made by the tenant to his landlord in respect of rent due.

Effect of depositing rent.

(2) The officer receiving the deposit shall give notice of the receipt thereof to every person who he has reason to believe claims, or is entitled to, the deposit, and may pay the amount thereof to any person appearing to him to be entitled to the same, or may, if he thinks fit, retain the deposit pending the decision of a Civil Court as to the person so entitled.

(3) No suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against the Secretary of State for India in Council, or against any officer of the Government, in respect of anything done by a Revenue-officer under this section ; but nothing in this section shall prevent any person entitled to receive the amount of any such deposit from recovering the same from a person to whom it has been paid by a Revenue-officer.

10. A landlord who, except under any special enactment for the time being in force, levies from a tenant anything in excess of the rent legally payable shall, on the application of the tenant, be liable under the order of a Revenue-officer, not below the class of Deputy Commissioner, to pay as penalty such sum as the Revenue-officer thinks fit, not exceeding five hundred rupees, or, when double the amount or value of what is so levied exceeds five hundred rupees, not exceeding double that amount or value. Such sum shall be awarded to the tenant as compensation.

Penalty for levy of anything in excess of rent by landlord.

Presumption as to payments by tenant to landlord. 11. Where rent is due, every payment by a tenant to his landlord shall, unless the tenant otherwise agrees, be presumed to be a payment on account of rent.

Penalty for refusing receipt or giving defective receipt. 12. A landlord who refuses to grant a receipt for rent paid by a tenant, or grants a receipt but refuses or neglects to specify therein the holding, and the period or crop, in respect of which the payment is made, or the amount paid, shall, on the application of the tenant, be liable, under the order of a Revenue-officer, to pay as penalty such sum, not exceeding double the amount or value of the rent so paid, as the Revenue-officer thinks fit. Such sum shall be awarded to the tenant as compensation.

Enhancement of rent when productive power of holding increased by landlord. 13. Notwithstanding anything in the record-of-rights, but subject to any contract in writing between the parties, the rent payable in money by any tenant may, on the application of his landlord, be enhanced by a Revenue-officer on the ground that an improvement has been made since the present rent was fixed and in accordance with this Act by or at the expense of the landlord whereby the productive power of the holding has been increased.

Reduction of rent when effect of improvement ceases. 14. When the rent of any tenant has been enhanced under section 13 or was fixed at the current settlement with regard to an improvement made by or at the expense of the landlord, a Revenue-officer may, at any time, on the application of the tenant, modify or cancel the order for enhancement, or reduce such rent, on the ground that the effect of the improvement in increasing the productive power of the holding has diminished or ceased since the date of the order for enhancement or of the last modification of such order made under this section, or since the rent was fixed by the Settlement-officer, as the case may be.

Power to alter rent when holding is increased, diminished or deteriorated. 15. When the area of a holding the rent of which is payable in money is increased or diminished by the encroachment of the tenant or the landlord, or by fluvial action or otherwise, or the soil of a holding is, without the fault of the tenant, permanently deteriorated by a deposit of sand or by any other calamity, a Revenue-officer may, notwithstanding anything in the record-of-rights or any contract between the parties, by order, on the application of the landlord or of the tenant, alter the rent with reference to that increase, diminution or deterioration.

Power to alter rent in case of new assessment. 16. When a landlord grants a lease, or makes any other contract fixing the rent of any holding, and, while the lease or contract is in force,—

(a) land-revenue is for the first time made payable in respect of the holding, or

- (b) land-revenue having been previously payable in respect of it, the revenue payable when the lease or other contract was granted or made is increased or diminished, a Revenue-officer may, notwithstanding anything in the record-of-rights or any contract between the parties, by order, on the application of the landlord or of the tenant, alter the rent with reference to the revenue.

17. (1) In all cases in which a tenant, other than an ordinary tenant whose holding consists entirely of sir-land, or than a sub-tenant, pays rent for a holding in kind, or on the estimated value of a portion of the crop or at rates varying with the crop, or partly in one of those ways and partly in another or others, the landlord or tenant may, notwithstanding anything in the record-of-rights or any contract between the parties, other than a contract whereby waste-land is let for the purpose of reclamation, apply during the progress of a settlement to a Settlement-officer, or at any other time to a Revenue-officer, to commute the rent to a fixed money-rent.

Commutation of rent payable in kind.

(2) On the receipt of the application, the officer, after giving notice of the application to the other party and hearing him, if he appears, may fix the sum to be paid as money-rent, and may, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, order that the tenant shall, in lieu of paying his rent in kind, or otherwise as aforesaid, pay the sum so fixed.

(3) If the application is opposed, the officer may, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, refuse to grant the same.

18. (1) Whenever from any cause the payment of the whole or any part of the land-revenue payable in respect of any land is remitted or suspended, a Revenue-officer may, by general or special order, remit or suspend, as the case may be, the payment of the rent of that land to an amount which may bear the same proportion to the whole of the rent payable in respect of the land as the land-revenue of which the payment has been remitted or suspended bears to the whole of the land-revenue payable in respect of the land, and may distribute the amount so remitted or suspended amongst the tenants holding such land as may seem to him to be equitable, having regard to the effect on their holdings of the cause which has led to the remission or suspension of the land-revenue :

Remission and suspension of rent consequent on like treatment of land revenue.

Provided that, where the rent is taken by actual division of the produce, no portion of it shall be suspended under this section.

(2) An order passed under sub-section (1) shall not be liable to be contested by suit in any Court.

(3) No suit shall lie for the recovery of any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or, during the period of suspension, of any rent of which the payment has been suspended, and, so long as a suit does not lie, such rent shall not be legally payable within the meaning of section 10.

(4) Where the payment of rent has been suspended, the period of suspension shall be excluded in the computation of the period of limitation prescribed for bringing a suit for the recovery of the rent.

(5) The provisions of this section relating to the remission and suspension of the payment of rent may be applied, as far as may be, to land of which the land-revenue has been wholly or in part released, compounded for or redeemed, in any case in which, if the land-revenue in respect of the land had not been released, compounded for or redeemed, the whole or any part of it might, in the opinion of the Revenue-officer, have been remitted or suspended.

(6) The provisions of this section relating to rent shall apply also, as far as may be, to revenue payable by málik-mákbuzás, to revenue and málikáná payable by inferior proprietors, and to thika-jamás payable by thikádárs of proprietary rights, and the provisions of section 10 apply in cases where revenue, málikáná or thika-jamá has been collected in contravention of this section.

C.—Commissions for dividing or estimating Crops.

Commission for dividing or estimating crops.

19. Whenever rent is taken by division of the produce, or by estimate or appraisement of the crop, if either the landlord or the tenant neglects to attend, either personally or by agent, at the proper time for making the division, estimate or appraisement, or if there is a dispute about the division of the produce or the quantity or value of the crop, a Revenue-officer may, on the application of either party, issue a commission to such person as the officer thinks fit, directing him to divide, estimate or appraise the crop.

Appointment of assessors, etc.

20. (1) When a Revenue-officer appoints a Commissioner for any of the purposes mentioned in section 19, the officer may, in his discretion, direct the Commissioner to associate with himself any other persons as assessors, and may give him instructions regarding the number, qualifications and mode of selecting those assessors (if any), and the procedure to be followed in making the division, estimate or appraisement.

(2) The Commissioner so appointed shall make the division, estimate or appraisement in accordance with those instructions.

Remedy for error in division.

21. (1) If in any division under the foregoing provisions either party receives less than the share to which he is entitled he may, within three months from the date on which the division is completed, institute a suit against the other party to recover the value of the additional portion of the crop due to him at the price which prevailed on that date.

(2) If no such suit is instituted within the said period of three months, the division shall for all purposes be deemed as between the parties thereto to have been rightly made.

22. (1) When a crop has been estimated or appraised under the foregoing provisions, the estimate or appraisal shall be reduced to writing and signed by the Commissioner making the same, and shall be submitted to the Revenue-officer by whom the commission was issued. Procedure when crop has been estimated or appraised.

(2) The Revenue-officer shall consider the Commissioner's report, and, after such hearing and inquiry (if any) as he may think necessary, shall pass an order thereon either confirming or varying the estimate or appraisal, and that order shall be final.

Procedure
produce is under attachment:

(a) any rent which has fallen due to him in respect of the holding within the year immediately preceding the application ; and

(b) the instalment of rent falling due next after the time at which in the ordinary course of agriculture the produce would be harvested.

36. (1) If an occupancy-tenant surrenders his holding under section 35, any such person as would be entitled to inherit his right in the holding in the event of his death without nearer heirs may, on application to a Revenue-officer, made at any time within two years after the date of the surrender, be placed in possession of the holding, subject, so far as the Revenue-officer may, in accordance with rules made by the Local Government, determine, to his acceptance of the liabilities of the surrendering tenant for arrears of rent and for advances made by the landlord or other persons for the necessary expenses of cultivation. occupancy-
holding.

(2) As among several persons so entitled and desirous of being placed in possession of the holding, the right to be so placed shall accrue in the order in which such persons would have inherited the right of the tenant in the holding if the tenant had died.

(3) When any such application as aforesaid is made, the Revenue-officer shall issue a notice to all persons who seem to him prima facie to have a right equal or prior to that of the applicant, and shall also cause local proclamation to issue in the village in or from which the holding was cultivated, inviting all persons claiming to be heirs of the tenant who made the surrender to appear before him on a date to be fixed ; and shall, after hearing such of the persons to whom notice was issued as may appear, and any other persons who may apply to be heard in the matter, decide who from among such of them as desired to be placed in possession is first entitled to be so placed.

(4) Sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) shall not apply in cases where, subject to any rules made by the Local Government in this behalf, a Revenue-officer has decided, after an inquiry made on the application of either landlord or tenant that the surrender is bonâ fide and has not been made with the object of evading the provisions of section 45 or section 46.

Tenant taking thikâ or farm.

37. When a person, at the time of taking a thikâ or farm is a tenant of any land comprised therein, his interest as tenant shall not be affected by reason only of his taking the thikâ or farm.

38. Nothing in this Act regarding the rights of an absolute occupancy-tenant, an occupancy-tenant or an ordinary tenant shall be deemed to apply to the tenant of any land situate within the limits of any forest-land or waste-land which has been declared to be a reserved forest under the Indian Forest Act, 1878<sup>1</sup>.

CHAPTER III.

OF ABSOLUTE OCCUPANCY-TENANTS.

Definition of "absolute occupancy-tenant."

39. Every person who, at the commencement of this Act, is the tenant of any holding in respect of which he, or a person, whose rights he has acquired, had been recorded in any record-of-rights made before the first day of January, 1884, as an "absolute occupancy-raiyat," or in terms equivalent thereto, shall, unless he has parted with his rights, be deemed to be an absolute occupancy-tenant of that holding.

Rents fixed for period of settlement.

40. (1) The rent of the holding of every absolute occupancy-tenant shall be fixed by the Settlement-officer at each settlement of the area in which the holding is comprised, and the rent so fixed shall not be altered during the currency of the settlement, except under the provisions of section 13, section 14, section 15 or section 17.

(2) The rent payable by any such tenant in respect of his holding at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been fixed at the current settlement of the area in which his holding is comprised.

41. (1) The right of an absolute occupancy-tenant in his holding shall on his death devolve as if it were land, and shall be transferable subject to the conditions contained in this section.

Right heritable and transferable after notice to landlord, who may claim to purchase.

(2) If an absolute occupancy-tenant intends to transfer any right in his holding by sale or gift, or by mortgaging the same for a sum which, together with the interest payable thereon during the five years immediately succeeding the mortgage and the previous sums (if any) secured by mortgage of it, would exceed eight times the annual rent of the holding, or by sub-letting the same in consideration of a fine or premium exceeding five times that rent, he shall give to his landlord a written notice of his intention, and shall defer proceeding with the transfer for a period of one month from the date on which the notice is given.

(3) If the intended transfer is by sale or gift, the landlord may, within the said period of one month—

(a) claim to purchase the absolute occupancy-right at such value as a Revenue-officer may, on application made to him in this behalf, fix ; or

(b) permit the sale or gift, in which case he shall be entitled to a sum equal to the rent for one year, and that sum shall be a first charge on the holding.

(4) If the intended transfer is by mortgage or sub-lease, the landlord may, within the said period of one month, claim to purchase the absolute occupancy-right at such value as a Revenue-officer may, on application made to him in this behalf, fix.

(5) When the right of an absolute occupancy-tenant in his holding is sold or is foreclosed by order of a Civil Court in execution of a decree other than a decree obtained by his landlord, the landlord shall have the same right of pre-emption as is given in the case of a sale by clause (a) of sub-section (3).

(6) When an application is made to a Revenue-officer under this section to fix the value of an absolute occupancy-right which is already mortgaged, he shall fix the value of the right as if it were not mortgaged ; and, if the landlord purchases the right, the mortgage-debt shall be a charge on the purchase-money in exoneration of the land.

(7) Any transfer made in contravention of this section shall be voidable at the instance of the landlord.

(8) If a person to whom an absolute occupancy-tenant has transferred possession of his holding in contravention of the provisions of this section be ejected by the landlord, the tenant may apply to a Revenue-officer within one year of the ejection of such person to be reinstated in possession of the holding, and the Revenue-officer may order him to be reinstated in possession on his depositing within a stated period, for payment to the landlord, the costs incurred by the landlord in procuring the ejection. If the tenant fails to make such application within one year of the ejection, or if he fails to deposit such costs within the period stated, his tenancy shall be deemed to have lapsed.

Absolute
occupancy-

ejection.

42. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, or any provision of a record-of-rights, an absolute occupancy-tenant shall not be ejected from his holding by his landlord as such for any cause.

charge on holding and

OF OCCUPANCY-TENANTS.

Definition of "occupancy-
tenant."

44. Every tenant who, on the first day of January, 1884 had held the same land continuously for twelve years, otherwise than as an absolute occupancy-tenant or a sub-tenant, and every person who is at the commencement of this Act, or thereafter becomes, a tenant (not being an absolute occupancy-tenant or a sub-tenant) of land in the districts of Chánda, Nímar and Sambalpúr, shall be deemed to be an occupancy-tenant of that land :

Provided that the land is not—

- (a) sîr-land, or
- (b) held in lieu of wages, or
- (c) held, in any district other than Sambalpúr, under a written lease in which it is expressly agreed that a right of occupancy in the land shall not be acquired or that the tenant shall quit the land at the termination of the lease.

Explanation I.—The occupation of any person from whom the tenant inherited or lawfully acquired his holding shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be the occupation of the tenant.

Explanation II.—Where, by the custom of any village, the holdings of tenants are, or have been, liable to periodical re-distribution, land which a tenant or any person under whom he claims has, in accordance with that custom, from time to time, received in exchange for land previously held by him, is, for the purpose of calculating, under this section, the period of twelve years, deemed to be the same land as the land which he held before the exchange.

45. (1) Notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary and save where sanction has been given under sub-section (2), a proprietor who, after the commencement of this Act, temporarily or permanently loses (whether under decree or order of a Civil Court or a Revenue-officer or otherwise) or transfers his right to occupy sîr-land as a proprietor, shall at the date of such loss or transfer become an occupancy-tenant of that sîr-land, and the rent payable by him as such shall be the sum determined at the current settlement as the rental value of such land, unless and until, on the application of either landlord or tenant, the rent is fixed by a Revenue-officer.

(2) An application by a proprietor for sanction to transfer his sîr-land without reservation of the right of occupancy provided for in sub-section (1) may be made to such Revenue-officer, not being below the class of Deputy Commissioner, as the Local Government may appoint for this purpose. Such officer shall sanction transfer in cases in which he is satisfied that the transferor is not wholly or mainly an agriculturist or that the property is self-acquired or has been acquired otherwise than by inheritance within the twenty years last preceding. In other cases he shall transmit the application to the Local Government, which may sanction the transfer in whole or in part, on the ground that—

- (a) the transferor, though wholly or mainly an agriculturist, will have other permanent means of subsistence after transferring the right to occupy his sîr-land, or
- (b) that the area of the sîr-land is too large for the transferor to manage after he has transferred his proprietary rights, or
- (c) that for any other reason the transfer ought to be permitted.

The Local Government may make rules for the guidance of Revenue-officers dealing with applications under this sub-section.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Registration Act, 1877,<sup>1</sup> no officer empowered to register documents under that Act shall admit to registration any document which purports to transfer or surrender the rights of a proprietor in his sîr-land, without reservation of the right of Accrual of occupancy-tenant-right in sîr-land on transfer of right to occupy as proprietor.

Grant of sanction in certain cases on transfer of the right to occupy sîr-land.

occupancy provided for in sub-section (1), or to be an agreement for such transfer or surrender, unless sanction to such transfer or surrender has been endorsed on the document in such manner and by such authority as the Local Government may direct.

Partition of undivided share in sîr-land.

(4) If there are two or more sharers in any sîr-land, and one of them becomes an occupancy-tenant in it under this section, his previous share in such sîr-land shall, on application made by him or by his landlord, be divided off by a Revenue-officer, and his rights as occupancy-tenant shall be limited to the land comprised in such share.

Saving of rights of ordinary tenants.

(5) The actual of occupancy-tenant-right under sub-section (1) shall not affect the rights of an ordinary tenant holding any part of the sîr-land at the time of such accrual.

Saving of prior registered documents.

<sup>1</sup>(6) Nothing in this section shall affect a document duly registered before the commencement of this Act; and, on any surrender or transfer such as is described in sub-section (1) being made, decreed or ordered in pursuance of such a document, the rights of the parties to occupy the sîr-land shall accrue as if this Act had not been passed.

Bar of jurisdiction of Civil Courts.

(7) No Civil Court shall question the validity of an order passed under this section granting or refusing sanction to the transfer of the right to occupy sîr-land as a proprietor.

Exception of bhogra.

(8) Nothing in this section shall apply to "bhogra" land.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section a transfer includes a mortgage and a lease.

Devolution of occupancy-right.

46. (1) When an occupancy-tenant dies his right in his holding shall devolve as if it were land :

Provided that, except in the districts of Chánda, Nimár and Sambalpûr, a collateral relative of the tenant shall not be entitled to inherit that right, unless at the death of the tenant he was a co-sharer in the holding or unless failing any such co-sharer, he held land, or was permanently resident, in the village in or from which the holding is cultivated, and is in the male line of descent from an ancestor who occupied the holding.

Exemption of occupancy-rights from Court sales.

(2) Save in pursuance of a document duly registered before the commencement of this Act, no-decree or order shall be passed for the sale of the right of an occupancy-tenant in his holding, nor shall such right be sold in execution of any decree or order.

(3) No occupancy-tenant shall be entitled to sell, make a gift of, mortgage, sub-let (except for a period not exceeding one year) or otherwise transfer his right in his holding or in any portion thereof, and every such sale, gift, mortgage, sub-lease (other than for a period not exceeding one year) or transfer shall be voidable in the manner and to the extent provided by the two next following sections :

Prohibition of transfer of occupancy-rights.

Provided that an occupancy-tenant may transfer his right of occupancy to any person who, if he survived the tenant, would inherit the right of occupancy, or to any person in favour of whom as a co-sharer the right of occupancy originally arose, or who has become by succession a co-sharer therein :

Provided, also, that nothing in this section shall affect the right of the Government to sell the right of an occupancy-tenant in his holding for the recovery of an advance made to him under the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883, or the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884, or the right of the purchaser at such sale to succeed to the holding.

Prohibition of contracts for future
sub-leases

III of 1877.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Registration Act, 1877,<sup>1</sup> no officer empowered to register documents shall admit to registration any document which purports to transfer the right of an occupancy-tenant in his holding or in any portion thereof, unless the document recites that the transferee is a person who, if he survived the tenant, would inherit the right of occupancy, or is a person in favour of whom as a co-sharer the right of occupancy originally arose or who became by succession a co-sharer therein.

Prohibition
of registration of documents transferring occupancy-rights.

47. (1) If an occupancy-tenant transfers any portion of his right in any land in contravention of the provisions of the last foregoing section, any such person as would be entitled to inherit his right in the holding in the event of his death without nearer heirs, or the landlord from whom the tenant held the land, may, on application to a Revenue-officer, made within two years from the date on which in pursuance of the transfer the tenant parted with possession of the land, be placed in possession, subject, so far as the Revenue-officer may, in accordance with rules made by the Local Government, determine, to his acceptance of the liabilities of the transferring tenant for arrears of rent and for advances made by the landlord or other persons for the necessary expenses of cultivation.

certain persons to apply to set aside

(2) As among several persons so entitled and being desirous of being placed in possession, the right to be so placed shall accrue in the order in which such persons would have inherited the right of the tenant in the subject of the transfer if the tenant had died. Failing any such persons, the right shall accrue to the landlord.

Procedure
on application.

48. When any such application as aforesaid is made, the Revenue-officer shall issue a notice to all persons who seem to him prima facie to have a right equal or prior to that of the applicant, and shall also cause local proclamation to issue in the village in or from which the holding was cultivated, inviting all persons claiming to be heirs of the tenant who made the transfer to appear before him on a date to be fixed ; and shall, after hearing such of the persons to whom notice was issued as may appear, and any other persons who may apply to be heard in the matter, decide whom from among such of them as desire to be placed in possession is first entitled to be so placed :

Provided that in the case of a sub-lease, if the tenant who made the sub-lease appears and prays within such period as the Revenue-officer may determine the amount of the consideration, if any has passed, for which the sub-lease was made and the costs of the applicant if he would otherwise have been successful, the Revenue-officer may replace the tenant-himself in possession of the land, if he is satisfied that the tenant made the sub-lease in ignorance of the law and is able and willing to cultivate the holding.

Rent of occupancy-
tenant to be fixed at settlement.

49. The rent of the holding of every occupancy-tenant shall be fixed by the Settlement-officer at each settlement of the area in which the holding is comprised.

in Chánda, Nimár and

(3) Subject to the provisions of sections 13, 14, 15 and 17, the rent payable by any such tenant in respect of a holding acquired by him after the commencement of this Act shall, pending the recurrence of the settlement of the area in which that holding is comprised, be the rent fixed by agreement between him and his landlord at the time he acquired that holding, or, in the absence of any such agreement, or on the expiration of the term for which any such agreement has been made, a rent fixed by a Revenue-officer on the application of either party at the following rate, that is to say :—

- (a) in the districts of Chánda and Nimár, the rate which the Local Government has prescribed for occupancy-tenants and caused to be entered in the record-of-rights at the current settlement ;
- (b) in the district of Sambalpúr, the average rate at which at the current settlement the rents of other lands in the same village of similar quality and possessing similar advantages were fixed.

51. The rate of rent payable in money by an occupancy-tenant in any other district may, during the currency of a settlement on the application of the landlord to a Revenue-officer, be enhanced, subject to any rules made under this Act for the local area in which the holding is situate and for the time being in force :

Enhancement during settlement in other districts.

Provided that—

- (b) no order shall be made on any such application which is inconsistent with any contract made after the current settlement and still in force, such contract being consistent with this Act.

52. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary or any provision of a record-of-rights, an occupancy-tenant shall not be rejected from his holding by his landlord as such except—

Grounds for ejection.

- (b) in execution of a decree of a Civil Court passed on the ground of his having diverted the land to non-agricultural purposes or being chargeable with some other act or omission which, by custom not inconsistent with this Act or with any other enactment for the time being in force, renders him liable to be ejected.

53. A tenant having a right of occupancy in land situate in a village in which the holdings of tenants are by custom liable to periodical re-distribution, and exchanging that land in accordance with the custom for other land situate in the same village, shall be deemed to have a right of occupancy in the land so taken in exchange.

(2) When a village-service-tenant is ejected from his holding under this section, or when he dies or resigns or is dismissed from his office, a Revenue-officer may, subject to any order issued under the proviso to section 56, sub-section (1), place his successor in office in possession of the holding ; and when a village-service-tenant is ejected from, or loses possession of, his holding otherwise than in accordance with this section, a Revenue-officer may reinstate him in the possession of his holding and eject any transferee or trespasser who may be in wrongful possession thereof.

CHAPTER VI.

OF SUB-TENANTS.

59. A tenant who is not an absolute occupancy-tenant or an occupancy-tenant and who holds land from another tenant, or from a málik-mákbúzá, or from the holder of a survey-number, is a sub-tenant of that land. Definition of "sub-tenant."

may prescribe, be declared by such Revenue-officer or Settlement-officer to have all the rights conferred by this Act on an ordinary tenant, and shall thereupon be deemed to have such rights both as against the sub-letting tenant and as against the landlord from whom the latter holds :

Provided that no such declaration shall be made within one year after the commencement of this Act or in the case of a sub-tenant holding under a lease registered before the commencement of this Act or until an opportunity has been given to the sub-letting tenant to show cause against it.

(2) When a sub-tenant has been declared under this section to have the rights of an ordinary tenant, so much of the rent payable by him as is equal to the rent payable to the proprietor by the tenant from whom he holds on account of the land sub-let to him shall be rendered by him to the proprietor direct, and the balance shall be rendered by him to the tenant from whom he holds.

(3) If a tenant regarding whose land a declaration under this section has been made dies without heirs or surrenders his holding, the sub-tenant shall be deemed to hold direct from the landlord at the total rent paid by him for the land at the time of such death or surrender.

OF ORDINARY TENANTS.

Definition of "ordinary tenants." 62. (1) Every tenant who is not an absolute occupancy-tenant, or an occupancy-tenant, or a village-service-tenant, or a sub-tenant, is an ordinary tenant.

(2) In any local area in which the Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, declare that the provisions of this sub-section are in force, where a person cultivates land not being sir-land under an agreement made with the proprietor of the land and purporting to be an agreement for the cultivation of the land by such person and such proprietor in partnership, such person is an ordinary tenant of the land so cultivated by him, and, notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, the rent payable by him for the land shall be fixed by a Revenue-officer on application made by him or his landlord.

(2) The rents fixed under sub-section (1) shall be recorded in the proceedings of the Settlement-officer, and a copy of the record shall be granted free of expense to the landlord.

(3) When by reason of the receipt by the landlord of any consideration, whether in money or otherwise, a tenant is holding at a rent lower than that fixed by the Settlement-officer under sub-section (1), the Settlement-officer may, notwithstanding anything in this Act, declare him to be entitled to hold at such lower rent,—

- (a) if the term is fixed by contract, for the term so fixed or for any shorter period ;
- (b) in other cases, for such term as the Settlement-officer, having regard to the circumstances, fixes as fair and equitable ;

and the term for which the tenant is declared to be so entitled shall be entered in the record made under sub-section (2) :

Provided that in no case shall the tenant be entitled to hold at such lower rent for a period longer than that for which the settlement is being made, and, at the expiry of the settlement, he shall not be entitled to a continuance of the privilege.

64. When a landlord wishes to enhance the rent of an ordinary tenant whose holding does not consist entirely of sir-land and whose rent is not fixed by an agreement in writing and the tenant does not agree to the enhancement, the landlord may cause to be served on the tenant through a Revenue-officer a notice of the enhancement not less than six months or more than twelve months before the commencement of the agricultural year in which the landlord desires the enhancement to take effect.

Notice of enhancement to be served through Revenue officer.

65. (1) If, within the period of one month from the service of a notice under the last foregoing section, the tenant on whom the notice has been served presents to the Revenue-officer issuing the notice a statement in writing declaring his willingness to pay the enhanced rent, he shall be deemed to have agreed to pay that rent from the commencement of the agricultural year next following.

Liability of tenant to ejectment in default of his agreeing to enhancement.

(2) If the tenant does not, within the said period of one month, present to the Revenue-officer a statement as aforesaid, the landlord may, not less than ten weeks before the commencement of the agricultural year next following, apply to the Revenue-officer to eject the tenant.

the agricultural year next following the date of the landlord's application under section 65, sub-section (2).

(2) If the tenant fails to appear, or if, on appearing, he does not agree to pay the enhanced rent demanded, the Revenue-officer shall determine what rent is fair and equitable for the holding : Provided that, save where in the Revenue-officer's opinion the existing rent is merely nominal, the rent so determined shall not exceed the existing rent by more than thirty-three per cent.

(3) If the tenant agrees to pay the rent so determined, he shall be entitled to remain in occupation of the holding at that rent from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the landlord's application under section 65, sub-section (2).

(4) If the tenant does not agree to pay the rent determined under sub-section (2), the Revenue-officer may make an order for his ejection, subject to the provisions of sections 88 and 89 and subject to the deposit by the landlord, within a month from the date of the order, of the amount of compensation (if any) determined as due to the tenant under section 32. If such amount is not so deposited, the order for ejection shall become void.

67. An ordinary tenant shall, subject to the provisions of sections 13, 14, 15, 16, 63, 66 and 78, pay such rent as may, from time to time, be fixed by agreement between him and his landlord.

Fresh proceeding not to be taken for seven years.

68. When the rent of a tenant has been fixed by a Settlement-officer under section 63, or where a tenant has agreed to pay an enhanced rent for his holding under section 65, or when a tenant is holding at a rent fixed as fair and equitable under section 66 or section 78, or when a rent has been agreed upon by contract or consent between the landlord and his tenant in respect of any holding, or when an order under section 66 to eject a tenant from his holding has become void from failure of the landlord to deposit the amount of compensation (if any) determined as due to the tenant under section 32, no notice of enhancement under section 64 shall be served on such tenant in respect of such holding, nor shall any further enhancement, by contract or consent or otherwise, in respect of such holding be permissible, for a period of seven years from the date on which the settlement made by the Settlement-officer took effect, or from the date of such fixation, agreement, contract or consent, or from the date of such order for ejection becoming void, as the case may be :

Provided that, where a tenant is holding land under a special contract with his landlord at a favourable rent for a term of years in consideration of temporary deterioration, or of the labour or expense involved in the reclamation by such tenant of the land from waste, nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a fair rent being fixed or agreed upon after the expiration of the term of such contract.

69. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary or any provision of a record-of-rights, an ordinary tenant shall not be ejected from his holding by his landlord as such except—

Grounds on which an ordinary tenant may be ejected.

(a) as provided in the case of an occupancy-tenant by section 52 ;

(b) in accordance with the provisions of section 66 ;

(c) in execution of a decree for ejectment passed on the ground that his holding consists entirely of sîr-land.

70. (1) When an ordinary tenant dies, his right in his holding shall devolve as if it were land :

Devolution of ordinary tenancy.

Provided that a collateral relative of the tenant shall not be entitled to inherit his right unless at the death of the tenant he was a co-sharer in the holding.

(2) Save in pursuance of a document duly registered before the commencement of this Act, no decree or order shall be passed for the sale of the right of an ordinary tenant in his holding, nor shall such right be sold in execution of any decree or order.

Exemption of ordinary tenant-rights from Court sales.

(3) No ordinary tenant shall be entitled to sell, make a gift of, mortgage, sub-let (except for a period not exceeding one year) or otherwise transfer his right or holding or any portion thereof ; and every such sale, gift, mortgage, sub-lease (other than for a period not exceeding one year) or transfer shall be voidable in the manner and to the extent provided by the two next following sections :

Prohibition of transfer of ordinary tenant-rights.

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall affect the right of the Government to sell the right of an ordinary tenant in his holding for the recovery of an advance made to him under the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883, or the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884, or the right of the purchaser at such sale to succeed to the holding.

XII of 1884.

(4) No contract for the sub-lease of a holding or any portion thereof shall be entered into or made during the currency of a sub-lease of such holding or such portion thereof ; and every such contract shall be voidable in the manner and to the extent provided by the two next following sections.

Prohibition of contracts for future sub-leases.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Registration Act, 1877,<sup>1</sup> no officer empowered to register documents under that Act shall admit to registration any document which purports to transfer the right of an ordinary tenant in his holding or in any portion thereof.

Prohibition of registration of documents transferring ordinary tenant-rights.

Right of ertain ersons to pply to set
ransfers.

71. (1) If an ordinary tenant transfers any portion of his rights in any land in contravention of the provisions of the last foregoing section, any such person as would be entitled to inherit his right in the holding in the event of his death without nearer heirs, or the landlord from whom the tenant held the land, may, on application to a Revenue-officer made within two years from the date on which, in pursuance of the transfer, the tenant parted with possession of the land, be placed in possession, subject, so far as the Revenue-officer may, in accordance with rules made by the Local Government, determine, to his acceptance of the liabilities of the transferring tenant for arrears of rent and for advances made by the landlord or other persons for the necessary expenses of cultivation.

(2) As among several persons so entitled and being desirous of being placed in possession, the right to be so placed shall accrue in the order in which such persons would have inherited the right of the tenant in the subject of the transfer if the tenant had died. Failing any such persons, the right shall accrue to the landlord.

Procedure
on application.

72. When any such application as aforesaid is made, the Revenue-officer shall issue a notice to all persons who seem to him prima facie to have a right equal or prior to that of the applicant, and shall also cause local proclamation to issue in the village in or from which the holding was cultivated, inviting all persons claiming to be heirs of the tenant who made the transfer to appear before him on a date to be fixed ; and, shall, after hearing such of the persons to whom notice was issued as may appear, and any other persons who may apply to be heard in the matter, decide who from among such of them as desire to be placed in possession is first entitled to be so placed :

Provided that in the case of a sub-lease, if the tenant who made the sub-lease appears and pays within such period as the Revenue-officer may determine the amount of the consideration, if any has passed, for which the sub-lease was made, and the costs of the applicant if he would otherwise have been successful, the Revenue-officer may replace the tenant himself in possession of the land, if he is satisfied that the tenant made the sub-lease in ignorance of the law and is able and willing to cultivate the holding.

Obligation of landlord to confer
occupancy
rights on ordinary
tenant.

73. (1) Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, the landlord of any holding held by an ordinary tenant shall, at the request of the tenant and on the tender by the tenant to him of a sum equal to two-and-a-half times the annual rent payable in respect of the holding together with the cost of preparing any instrument required for this purpose, confer upon the tenant the rights of an occupancy-tenant in respect of the holding ; and, when those rights have so been conferred the rent of the tenant shall be deemed to be fixed under this Act, within the meaning of section 51, at the rate at which rent was payable by the tenant at the date of the request and tender :

Provided, that the tenant may, for the purposes of any such request and tender, and the landlord may, upon any such request and tender being made to him, apply to a Revenue-officer, or during the progress of settlement-operations to a Settlement-officer, to fix the rent of the holding for the purposes of this section ; and, if it is proved to the satisfaction of the officer that the rate of rent payable in respect of the holding is greater or less than the rate usually paid by ordinary tenants of holdings situate in the village or vicinity for land of similar quality with like advantages, the officer may fix the rent at the latter rate, and the rent so fixed shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be, and to have been at the date of the request and tender, the rent payable by the tenant :

Provided, further, that, if the application is made other-wise than during the progress of settlement-operations, nothing in this section shall be construed to empower a Revenue-officer to alter a rent within seven years of its having been fixed under any of the provisions of this Act, except on the ground that some such change as is described in section 15 has since occurred so as to render the rent so fixed no longer a fair rent.

(2) If a landlord to whom a request and tender are made by a tenant under sub-section (1), refuses or neglects for a period of one month to confer the rights of an occupancy-tenant on the tenant, the tenant may deposit the sum aforesaid in the Court of a Revenue-officer, or, during the progress of settlement-operations, of a Settlement-officer, and apply to that officer to confer upon him the rights of an occupancy-tenant in respect of the holding.

(3) The officer so applied to, after giving notice of the application to the landlord and hearing him, if he appears, and after making such inquiry as he thinks necessary, may execute any instrument required for conferring the rights of an occupancy-tenant in respect of the holding upon the tenant, and the execution shall have the same effect as an execution by the landlord.

(4) Every person upon whom the rights of an occupancy-tenant are conferred under this section shall be deemed to be an occupancy-tenant for the purposes of this Act.

(5) Nothing in this section shall apply to a holding consisting entirely of sîr-land.

CHAPTER VIII.

JURISDICTION AND PROCEDURE.

Power to direct that suits between landlords and tenants and tenants be entered in separate registers.

74. The Local Government may direct that all suits, or any specified class of suits, between landlords and tenants as such, shall not be registered in the registers of civil suits kept under the <sup>1</sup>Code of Civil Procedure, but in such other registers as it may prescribe. XIV of 1882

Plaint in such suits.

75. (1) In suits between landlords and tenants as such, the plaint shall, in addition to the matters mentioned in section 50 of the <sup>1</sup>Code of Civil Procedure, specify the area of the land to which the suit relates, and, where the fields comprised in that land have been numbered in a Government survey, the number of each such field; and, in the case of suits for an arrear, the amount of the yearly rent and the instalments in which it is payable. XIV of 1882.

(2) When the land to which the suit relates comprises parts of numbered fields or has not been divided into numbered fields, an accurate and sufficient description of the land and its boundaries shall be given in the plaint.

Legal practitioners' fees not allowed unless for special reasons.

76. In suits between landlords and tenants as such, the fees of a legal practitioner shall not be allowed as costs unless the Court considers, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that those fees ought to be allowed.

Set-off when allowed in suits for arrears.

77. No set-off shall be allowed in any suit for arrears unless the amount claimed as a set-off has been determined by a decree or order of a competent Court or of a Revenue-officer or Settlement-officer.

Procedure when ordinary tenant in suit pleads excessive rent.

78. (1) If in any suit in which the defendant is an ordinary tenant whose holding does not consist entirely of sŕ-land the tenant appears and, at any time before a decree is passed, pleads that his rent is excessive, the Court shall inquire into the circumstances of the rent.

(2) If the Court finds that the rent payable by the tenant has been enhanced by contract or consent above the rent determined by a Settlement-officer at the current settlement or by a Revenue-officer under this Act, or, when not so determined, above the rent at which the holding was first taken up by the tenant, or, if the rent payable was determined by a Settlement-officer in proceedings taken before the commencement of this Act only after the landlord had refused to comply with the request of the Settlement-officer to reduce it, the Court may stay proceedings and refer the case to a Revenue-officer, who shall thereupon fix what rent is fair and equitable for the holding. If the rent so fixed is equal to or more than the rent previously payable, the Court shall decree the arrears claimed and proved. If the rent so fixed is less than the rent previously payable, the Court shall decree against the tenant arrears of rent on account of any year only to the extent of the amount (if any) by which his payments for that year fell short of the rent so fixed. The tenant shall be entitled to remain in occupation at a rent fixed under this sub-section from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the institution of the suit.

(3) If the Court finds that the rent, in respect of which the plea is made by the tenant, was not enhanced or determined in the manner described in sub-section (2), but was the rent at which the tenant first took up the holding from the landlord, the Court shall pass a decree for such sum as may be due at the rent so payable, but may, before or after passing the decree, refer the case to a Revenue-officer, who shall thereupon fix what is a fair and equitable rent for the holding, and, if the tenant pays the amount decreed within one month of the date on which the rent is so fixed, he shall be entitled to remain in occupation of his holding at the rent so fixed with effect from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the institution of the suit.

Explanation I.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorise a Revenue-officer to determine a rent higher than that payable by the tenant at the date of the institution of the suit except from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the institution of the suit, and on the formal application of the landlord.

Explanation II.—A statement made during the progress of settlement-operations by the Settlement-officer, and contained in any return or report prescribed by the Local Government, to the effect that a landlord refused to reduce any rent shall be conclusive proof of such refusal.

79. When the land in respect of which an application is made under section 50 or section 51, or for which a fair rent is to be determined under section 66 or section 78, has been improved, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, by the agency, or at the expense, of the tenant, and such improvement was made during the term of the current settlement or the term of the settlement immediately preceding it, the quality and advantages of the land, as cultivated land, shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any contract or record-of-rights to the contrary, be deemed, for the purposes of any such section as aforesaid, to be the quality and advantages which the land would have had and enjoyed if the improvement had not been made.

Tenants' improvements how to be treated in fixing rents.

Interest on arrears.

80. In suits for arrears, interest on the arrears may be allowed up to the date of institution at such rate, not exceeding twelve per cent per annum, as the Court thinks fit.

No appeal in certain suits for arrears.

81. A decree or order passed in a suit for arrears, whether on appeal or otherwise, by a Judge of a Civil Court exercising powers not less than those of an Assistant Commissioner of the first class as defined in the <sup>1</sup>Central Provinces Civil Courts Act, 1885, shall not be subject to appeal, unless—

XVI of 1885.

(a) the amount or value of the subject-matter of the suit exceeds one hundred rupees ; or

(b) a question relating to a title to land or some interest in land has been determined as between parties having conflicting claims thereto.

Application for execution by sale of holding or by ejectment.

82. An application for the execution of a decree for an arrear of rent by sale of the holding in respect of which the arrear accrued or by ejectment of the tenant shall contain a statement showing the tahsil and village in which the holding is situate, the numbers borne in the village rent-roll by the fields constituting the holding, the rent annually payable, and the years in which the decreed arrears accrued.

Arrears decreed not to be on current year's account.

83. No such application as is referred to in the foregoing section shall be admitted until after the expiration of the year in which the arrear, or any part of the arrear, accrued.

Procedure in execution by sale of holding.

84. (1) A decree for arrears of rent due in respect of an absolute occupancy-holding shall, if sale of such holding be ordered in execution, be executed as if it ordered sale in pursuance of a contract specifically affecting the holding, and shall under section 320 of the Code of Civil Procedure be transferred to the Collector for execution.

XIV of 1882.

(2) The Collector executing the decree may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 305 of the Code of Civil Procedure, allow the tenant time in which to pay the amount due: Provided that any period, or the aggregate of any periods, so allowed shall, subject to any general or special orders which may be issued by the Local Government, not exceed two months.

Procedure in
ejectment.

85. (1) A decree for an arrear of rent due in respect of an occupancy or ordinary holding or a holding held by a sub-tenant may be executed by the ejectment of the tenant: Provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in the <sup>2</sup>Code of Civil Procedure, an order for the ejectment of a tenant in execution of such a decree shall be transferred to a Revenue-officer for execution.

XIV of 1882.

(2) The Revenue-officer on receiving the decree shall cause a notice to be served upon the tenant stating the date of the decree, the amount due thereunder and the numbers borne in the village rent-roll by the fields constituting the holding, and informing him that if he does not pay into Court within a month from date the amount due he will be ejected from his holding.

(3) If the amount due is not paid within the period appointed, the Revenue-officer may, subject to the provisions of sections 32, 88 and 89, eject the tenant or may, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, postpone ejection in order to allow the tenant time for payment : Provided that any period, or the aggregate of any periods, so allowed shall, subject to any general or special orders which may be issued by the Local Government, not exceed in the case of an occupancy-holding or an ordinary holding not consisting entirely of sir-land four months, or in the case of an ordinary holding consisting entirely of sir-land or a holding held by a sub-tenant one month.

(4) The Local Government may make rules for the guidance of Revenue-officers executing decrees under this section.

86. (1) Where, in answer to a suit for an arrear, the tenant admits that the arrear is due, but pleads that the produce of his holding during the period in respect of which the arrear is claimed has been diminished or destroyed by drought, hail or other extraordinary calamity beyond his control, the Court in its discretion may, notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, allow in its decree any deduction from the arrear, and direct payment of the amount decreed (if any) in such instalments (if any) as it thinks fit.

Power of Court to deal with cases of drought or other calamity in suits for arrears.

(2) In any such case the Court may order that the provisions of sections 84 and 85 shall not apply to the decree.

(3) In making a decree under this section the Court shall have regard to—

(a) the value of the produce of the holding for the whole agricultural year in respect of which the arrear accrued ; and

(b) the proportion which the amount of rent payable for that year by the tenant bears to that value.

(4) If in any such suit it appears that the land-revenue of the village in which the holding is situate has been, wholly or in part, suspended or remitted on account of drought, hail or other extraordinary calamity in respect of the period for which the arrear is claimed, the Court shall presume, until the contrary is shown, that the diminution or destruction alleged by the tenant has taken place.

Relief against forfeitures.

87. (1) A suit for the ejectment of a tenant on the ground that he has done or omitted to do something for doing or omitting to do which he is liable to ejectment, or that he has broken a condition on breach of which he is, under the terms of a contract between him and the landlord, liable to ejectment, shall not be entertained unless the landlord has requested the tenant, where the damage or breach is capable of remedy, to remedy the same, and, in any case, to pay reasonable compensation for the damage or breach, and the tenant has failed to comply within a reasonable time with that request.

(2) A decree passed in favour of a landlord in any such suit shall declare the amount of compensation which would reasonably be payable to the plaintiff for the damage or breach and whether, in the opinion of the Court, the damage or breach is capable of remedy, and shall fix a period during which it shall be open to the defendant to pay that amount to the plaintiff, and, where the damage or breach is declared to be capable of remedy, to remedy the same.

(3) The Court may, from time to time, extend a period fixed by it under sub-section (2) for remedying a damage or breach.

(4) If the defendant, within the period or extended period (as the case may be) fixed by the Court under this section, pays the compensation mentioned in the decree, and, where the damage or breach is declared by the Court to be capable of remedy, remedies the damage or breach to the satisfaction of the Court, the decree shall not be executed.

Rights of ejected tenants in respect of crops and land prepared for sowing.

88. The following rules shall be applicable in the case of every tenant ejected from a holding :—

(1) When the tenant has, before the date of his ejectment, sown or planted crops in any land comprised in the holding, he shall be entitled, at the option of the landlord, either to retain possession of that land and to use it for the purpose of tending and gathering in the crops, or to receive from the landlord the estimated value of the labour and capital expended by the tenant in preparing the land and sowing, planting and tending the crops, together with reasonable interest thereon.

(2) When the tenant has, before the date of his ejectment, prepared for sowing any land comprised in his holding, but has not sown or planted crops on that land, he shall be entitled to receive from the landlord the estimated value of the labour and capital expended by him in so preparing the land, together with a reasonable interest thereon :

Provided that a tenant shall not be entitled to retain possession of any land or receive any sum in respect thereof under this section when, after the commencement of proceedings by the landlord for his ejectment, he has cultivated or prepared the land contrary to local usage :

Provided, also, that the rent, if any, payable to the landlord by the tenant at the time of ejectment may be set off against any sums payable to the tenant under this section.

89. When a landlord elects, under clause (1) of the last foregoing section, to allow a tenant to retain possession of any land for the purpose specified in that clause, the tenant shall pay to the landlord, for the use and occupation of the land during the period for which he is allowed to retain possession of the same, such rent as the Court or Revenue-officer may deem reasonable.

Payment by tenant for occupation of land under section 88.

90. In all suits for arrears of rent, the Court shall inquire into and determine all claims under this Act by the landlord against the tenant as such, or by the tenant against the landlord as such.

In suits for arrears all claims between landlord and tenant to be determined.

91. (1) When it appears to a Court making an inquiry under the last foregoing section that the amount payable by the landlord to the tenant as such exceeds the amount payable by the tenant to the landlord as such, the decree or order for sale or ejectment (if any) shall, unless the landlord and tenant come to an arrangement regarding the payment of the excess sum, specify a time within which it must be paid into Court.

Procedure when, on sale or ejectment, money is due by the landlord to the tenant.

(2) If it is so paid within the time specified, the Court shall, subject to the other provisions of this Act, make an order for the sale of the holding or the ejectment of the tenant ; and, if it is not so paid, the Court shall refuse to make such order.

92. Any tenant who has been ejected from his holding or from any portion thereof otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act, may, on application to a Revenue officer made within one year from the date of his ejectment be reinstated in possession of such holding or portion :

Reinstatement of tenant illegally ejected.

Provided that no order passed under this section shall prejudice the right of the landlord to eject the tenant so reinstated, or the right of a tenant whose application for reinstatement is rejected to establish his title to his holding and to recover possession thereof by means of a regular suit :

Provided, also, that possession of a tenancy, or of any portion thereof, shall not be recoverable under section 9 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877, by a tenant dispossessed thereof.

I O' 1877.

93. (1) If any landlord, or tenant of a holding desires that the extent of that holding be ascertained, or that evidence relating to any improvement made in respect thereof or to the state of the holding at any specified time, be recorded, he

- (a) make or cause to be made such inquiry as he thinks fit, with a view to ascertaining the extent of the holding, and record his finding thereon, or
- (b) (where the applicant seeks to have evidence recorded) record that evidence :

Provided that no action shall be taken by any Revenue-officer under this section if he considers that there are no reasonable grounds for making the application, or if the subject-matter thereof is under inquiry in a Civil Court.

(2) When any matter has been recorded under this section, the record shall be admissible in evidence in any subsequent proceedings between the landlord and tenant or any persons claiming under them.

Limitation in suits under the Act.

94. (1) The period of limitation for a suit instituted by a tenant other than an absolute occupancy-tenant to recover possession of land from which he has been ejected, shall be two years from the date on which he is ejected.

(2) Whenever rent is taken by division of the produce or by estimate or appraisement of the crop, and no application is made under section 19, no suit by the landlord for the recovery of the share of the produce claimed by him as rent, or the value thereof, shall lie unless such suit is instituted within a period of one year reckoned from the date on which the rent instalment on account of the harvest to which the crop belongs fell due.

(3) In all other cases the limitation of every suit brought under this Act shall be governed by the <sup>1</sup>Indian Limitation Act, 1877 : XV of 1877.

Provided that nothing in sections 7, 8 and 9 of the said Act shall apply to suits for arrears of rent or for the ejectment of a tenant, or to suits for recovery of possession by a tenant against his landlord.

Jurisdiction of Civil Courts

certain cases.

they exercise and follow under the Central Provinces Land-XVIII of 1881. revenue Act, 1881, as from time to time amended.

(2) From every decision or order of a Revenue-officer or Settlement-officer fixing rent or disposing of any matter referred to in the last foregoing section, an appeal shall lie as if that decision or order had been passed by that officer under the said Act.

97. Except as provided in section 95. the Civil Courts shall have jurisdiction in all suits between landlords and tenants as such :

(b) the Local Government may, subject to the other provisions of this Act, direct that all or any class of such suits shall be heard and determined only in such Courts competent to try the same as it thinks fit, and not otherwise.
